FIFTY-EIGHTH YEAR No. 106 LINCOLN, NEB., TUESDAY MORNING, FEBRUARY 2, 1960 SEVEN CENTS

County Road Plan Cost—$1 Million

. . . INCLUDES 6 MILES OF PAVING

By Del Harding

County Engineer Louis Weaver's 1960 road program calls for paving projects near Hickman, Denton and on Lincoln's No. 14th St.

Weaver's $1,080,000 program will be presented to the County Board Tuesday. Approval is a formality.

The 3 paving projects involve 6½ miles of new asphaltic concrete paving at a total cost of $288,000, of which federal aid secondary road funds will pay half.

The 2½-mile Hickman project will complete paving of the Lincoln-Hickman road and will cost $120,000.

The Denton road will be extended two miles to within 1½ miles of the town, and the project will cost $80,000.

The paving on No. 14th St. will be extended from 10 miles north of Lincoln to 12 miles north of the city where it will intersect the Davey road. The project's cost is $88,000.

Other highlights of Weaver's program are a $67,000 bridge program which includes replacing 7 wooden bridges with steel and concrete structures and also $16,000 in regraveling projects throughout the county.

The wooden bridge (X-30) across the Nemaha River northwest of Firth will be replaced with a 60-foot steel and concrete span at a cost of $14,000.

The wooden flooring of a bridge (D-121) northwest of Raymond will be replaced with concrete. The 80-foot span will cost $12,000.

Other Bridge Work

Other bridge work will include: building up the approaches of bridge A-171 northeast of Waverly ($10,000); replacing wooden bridge F-139 north of Lincoln with a 20-foot steel and concrete span ($4,000); repairing bridge G-33 north of Lincoln ($4,000); replacing two wooden bridges R-248 northeast of Holland with a 30-foot steel and concrete span ($10,000); replacing wooden bridge U-108 north of Kramer with a 20-foot steel and concrete span ($5,000); replacing wooden bridge W-170 north of Hallam with a 7 by 7 foot box culvert ($4,000); and replacing wooden bridge Y-175 southeast of Panama with a 12 by 6 foot box culvert ($4,000).

The 9½ miles of regrading and regraveling projects will take place west of sects. 16, 21 and 28 in Twp. 11, Ra. 5; south of sects. 19, 21, 22 and 23 in Twp. 11, Ra. 6; west of sect. 16 in Twp. 7, Ra. 5; west of the NW¼ of sect. 22, Twp. 9, Ra. 8; and south of sect. 1, Twp. 10, Ra. 6.

Other expenditures will include $180,000 for maintaining mail route gravel roads, $245,000 for labor and supervision, and $44,000 for replacing two motor graders.

Weaver's program calls for expenditures of $1,080,000 and an income of the same amount. Nearly all of the income comes from gasoline tax funds and from motor vehicle taxes.

'Proof Burden Rests On GNI'

. . . R.G. SET FOR HEARING

Gov. Ralph Brooks Monday evening made it clear that the burden of proof rests on the Greater Nebraska Interstate, Inc., Tuesday when it presents its case against present Interstate construction priorities.

GNI and other opponents of present priorities will meet with Brooks, Department of Roads officials and members of the Advisroy Highway Commission at 2 p.m., at the Statehouse.

At issue is priority given to Interstate construction through downtown Omaha.

In a prepared statement, Brooks asked that GNI "present its cause on its merits" and that "facts concerning it should be presented fairly and impartially."

'An Open Mind'

The governor said he would guarantee "an open mind."

However, he added pointedly:

"I hope this meeting will result in an accurate communication of those facts through all news media without editorializing news columns or colored news stories."

Brooks also referred to "distortions which have appeared in the public press" and "obvious political and sectional overtones which have been created."

The governor noted that the audience Tuesday is "not to be considered as a precedent for future priority determinations."

Simple Issue

Gene Kemper, Alliance publisher and chairman of the GNI, said the issue to be decided Tuesday by the governor is simple. Kemper said it boils down to resolving this question: "Given one set of dollars within fixed periods of time, should the state spend $45 million to build 3.9 miles of interstate in downtown Omaha ahead of building 100 miles of 4-lane highway across Nebraska?"

Acting State Engineer John Hossack has stated that Nebraska would be "hard pressed" to keep federal funds from lapsing if at least some of a $7 million fund were not used on Route 3. He said it would be difficult to spend all of the $7 million without putting some in Omaha and that some might be used on Route 3.

$136 Million More Okayed For Space

Washington (AP)—President Eisenhower Monday approved $136 million in additional funds to speed and strengthen the nation's space program.

The figure includes 113 million to speed up the program for creating super rocket boosters—primarily the great Saturn rocket.

The other 23 million, a spokesman for the National Aeronautics and Space Administration said, would "probably be pretty much earmarked for the Mercury (man-in-space) program."

Both allocations are subject to approval by Congress, the $113 million item for the next fiscal year, beginning July 1, and the $23 millions for the current year, ending June 30.

Word that Eisenhower had given his okay to such funding came from Denver, where the President stopped en route from a California vacation to Washington.

Chairman Overton Brooks (D-La.) of the House Science and Astronautics Committee, called Monday's money development good news.

House Civil Rights Deadlock Broken

PREDICTION, PLEASE

Gillie the Groundhog has his day and six-year-old Doreen Coplin, a Houston, Tex. lass, seeks the all-important weather forecast. Legend has it that if the groundhog sees its shadow on Feb. 2, another 6 weeks of winter may be expected.

NO GROUND HOG SHADOWS HERE

Chances are, ground hogs in Nebraska can romp to their hearts' content Tuesday without fear of shadows, as the Weather Bureau predicts considerable cloudiness and light snow for the northeast and partly cloudy to cloudy skies elsewhere in the state.

Temperatures will be on the rise across the state, ranging from the upper 40 highs southwest to the mid-30s in the extreme northeast.

Monday's snowstorm which hit the western half of the state, dumped from 4 to 6 inches in the Kimball, Sidney and Ogallala areas, and up to 3 inches at Gordon, Chadron, Alliance, Mullen and North Platte. Road surfaces from a line west of Kearney and O'Neill were reported snowpacked and icy by State Maintenance Engineer John McMeekin. East of the line freezing drizzle fell at Grand Island, Hastings, Geneva and St. Paul. Monday night temperatures turned the wet road surfaces in these areas to ice.

State highs Monday were registered at Omaha and the Lincoln Municipal airport with 35-degree readings. Lincoln had a high of 34 and an overnight low of 31.

AS ALGIERS TENSION SUBSIDES:

Rebel Chief Imprisoned; Cabinet Bids For Power

Paris (AP)— Pierre Lagaillarde, defeated leader of the Algiers insurgents, was flown to Paris Monday night and put in prison.

Less than 12 hours after he marched out of the Algiers barricades at the head of his dispirited followers, Lagaillarde arrived here in a military plane.

The paratroop reserve lieutenant and deputy in the French National Assembly was driven from an airfield in the Paris area to the grim Sante Prison under heavy guard.

Inside the prison, an assistant prosecutor told Lagaillarde that he had been charged with an attack on the security of the state.

Ortiz Missing

A warrant also was issued for the arrest of Joseph Ortiz, the other top leader in the revolt, who has disappeared.

Before Lagaillarde's arrival the French cabinet decided to ask for broad special powers to clean up the aftermath of the rightist rebellion. Parliament was called into an emergency one-day session Tuesday to approve the request.

The call for practically unlimited authority — which will be vested in the cabinet, not in the personal hands of President Charles de Gaulle — came quickly on the heels of the collapse of the revolt.

3-Month Lease

The special powers would give the government the right to legislate by decree for a limited period, probably about 3 months.

A communique published after a cabinet meeting gave not the slightest hint of why the government thinks it needs the special powers or what it intends to do with them.

It was generally believed, however, that President de Gaulle and the government intend to move quickly and firmly against civil and military chiefs in Algeria who let the rightwing extremist elements get out of hand.

Revolt Collapses

The Algiers insurrection has ended in inglorious surrender. The barricades have come down. Story on Page 3.

Eager's Condition Said 'Unchanged'

Col. Frank Eager, 67, longtime Lincoln businessman and politician was reported in "serious" condition at a local hospital early Tuesday.

Hospital officials said there had been no change in Eager's condition since he became seriously ill last week. He has been hospitalized since early last November.

A Cloggy Day In London Town

London (AP)—A strike on London's subway system Monday night marooned 3 million commuters in a rain-soaked island of tangled traffic.

Commuters lined up at bus stops and the few subway stations still operating. Car owners sat immobile in mammoth traffic jams.

Hardier citizens tramped the soaking pavements.

Two women were just ready to board a big airliner. One of them turned to the pilot and commented: "Now, please don't go faster than sound. We want to talk."

Hearings Set For Thursday

'Play Politics' Charge Made

Washington (AP)—The House Rules Committee, under pressure, agreed Monday to begin hearings this week on a Civil Rights bill.

Still, it showed no disposition to hurry.

Other members of the committee withheld support from a motion by Rep. Ray J. Madden (D-Ind) that the committee act immediately on the bill, without waiting for hearings.

Madden and Chairman Howard W. Smith (D-Va) both charged the other side with playing politics this election year.

Smith opposes the bill but he pledged: "I will not dilly, I will not dally and I will not delay."

By contrast, he said, Rep. Emanuel Celler (D-NY), a foremost plugger for federal Civil Rights laws, "dillied, dallied and delayed."

He Blames Celler

Celler is chairman of the House Judiciary Committee and Smith said the New Yorker did not get his committee to approve the bill until 7 months after it was introduced. The Judiciary Committee approved the bill last August.

Smith's Rules Committee has been sitting on the bill. However, in recent weeks almost a majority of the House has signed a petition to take the legislation away from the committee, straight to the House floor.

It takes 219 signatures to bypass a committee, and the number of signers is reported approaching 200.

Later Monday, Smith said Rules Committee hearings will begin Thursday with Celler as the first witness.

Smith said Celler very obviously has been "waiting for the magic election year of 1960 when he could whip up a frenzy of politically powerful minority groups."

Less Far-Reaching

The bill as it stands is by no means as far-reaching as it once was, having been whittled down in the Judiciary Committee. However, Smith expressed belief that for political reasons, Northern and Western politicians want it pressed now so they can add "amendments that would take us back to the Reconstruction Days and impose carpetbag government from Washington on the Southern states."

The most important parts of the pending bill would make it a federal crime to use force or threats of force to block court orders for the racial integration of public schools and would require federal officials' access to local election records. The latter provision relates to complaints that Southern Negroes are often handicapped in their efforts to vote.

Val Peterson Says 'Won't' Enter Races

Copenhagen (AP)—Val Peterson, U.S. Ambassador to Denmark, said Monday night he would not be a candidate for any public office in the United States this year.

The ambassador said he expected to serve out his term as ambassador before returning to private life.

"Personal considerations make it impossible for me to be a candidate for public office this year," Peterson said.

He acknowledged that he had been asked to run for Nebraska governor or congressman in the November elections.

B52 Crashes Carrying 7

San Juan, Puerto Rico (AP)—An Air Force B52 Stratobomber with 7 airmen aboard crashed at Ramey Air Force Base here late Monday night.

The huge 8-jet bomber crashed just short of the runway at the air base during landing practice. The spokesman said the plane was a "total loss."

The B52 was attached to the 72nd Bombardment Wing at Ramey base.

The spokesman refused to say whether any of the crew were killed.

4-Year Power Split May Be Settled:

REA'S TRY TO HEAL RIFT WITH CUSTER

By Don Walton

Initial steps were taken Monday to once again unite the Custer Public Power District with 26 other rural public power districts for the first time in 4 years.

The action developed during the 24th annual meeting of the Nebraska Rural Electric Assn., in Lincoln.

The REA convention concludes Tuesday with election of officers; progress, legislative and resolutions reports, and a featured address by Clyde Ellis, general manager of the National Rural Electric Co-Operative Assn.

Action to heal the long-unsettled rift between Custer and the 26 other rurals came at a closed meeting of Custer and Nebraska Public Power System officials called Monday morning by Ralph Foreman of Washington, D.C., deputy administrator of the REA.

Foreman, himself a former Nebraskan, later told the convention's general session:

"It is my personal opinion that we are now talking about 27 rurals for the first time in 4 years. Further, Custer agrees that from today on we are talking about one group.

"Now, give us a chance to let it work."

The tentative agreement requires formal approval from directors of the Loup River Public Power District and the Central Nebraska Public Power and Irrigation District, both of which form NPPS.

The NREA convention was also asked to adopt a resolution Tuesday which would allow NPPS to bill Custer for power supply as a pool member retroactive to Sept. 1, 1959.

An interim letter agreement would be ratified pending a permanent contractual obligation providing Custer agrees to purchase power from NPPS for a minimum of 25 years.

Could Cancel Pools

Custer further must recognize that under the modified contract agreement, a majority of the rurals could cancel pooling agreements.

The ruckus came to a head in the past week when NPPS notified Custer that it would not execute a standard requirements contract with Custer pending court litigation brought by rural districts.

Previously, Custer declined to sign a requirements power contract agreement with NPPS negotiated by the 26 other rurals because it hoped to improve on some provisions of the power supply pact.

Council Studies Resurfacing

. . . WEATHER-DEVELOPED CHUCKHOLES POINT UP NEEDS

By Virgil Falloon

A 1960 resurfacing program for Lincoln's worst streets was under study Monday as city street repair crews began making emergency repairs on chuckholes.

The chuckholes, resulting from a combination of freezing and thawing and wornout asphalt, developed largely over the weekend as rising temperatures ended the near-zero temperatures of the past several weeks.

Paving Repair Supt. Lyle Gieseker said two crews were running asphalt patches while a third crew was "burning" ahead of the asphalt work. He said another crew would be added Tuesday.

Some of the streets in the worst condition are So. 9th, D from South to Sumner, 27th around L, 48th from Van Dorn to Sumner, East O, and So. Cotner.

Streets Toured

Public Works Director D. L. Erickson and Gieseker toured some of the badly-damaged streets Monday.

Erickson described the "chuckholes as a good barometer of which streets most badly need resurfacing."

He noted there is $200,000 for resurfacing in the 1959-60 budget, but no resurfacing projects will be specified until further studies are made.

"So far, the winter has not left Lincoln streets in as bad condition as previous years," Erickson said. "The reason is the some $140,000 of asphalt resurfacing done last year on our streets."

Erickson and Gieseker explained that alternating freezes and thaws almost daily the past month along with snow and freezing rain were the reason for the damage.

However, both city officials said most recent and extensive damage was on streets with pavement in the 40-year-old classification.

In addition to resurfacing funds in the 11-year street improvement program, the 1959-60 street repair budget includes $187,477 for paving repair and equipment.

Hot Patch Used

While some cities use a cold mix asphalt for patching that is often pounded out within a few days by traffic, Gieseker says that Lincoln uses a hot asphalt patch.

A crew digs out the chuckholes and then the base is dried with torches and a hot patch is used, Gieseker said.

However, hot asphalt patching isn't a permanent solution, according to Erickson. Because of moisture and expected future bad weather, there are no permanent repairs that can be made now.

"It's a stop-gap measure to remove street hazards for traffic until permanent repairs can be made," Erickson said.

—Council Votes To Share Cost—

$16,000 Authorized For Widening 15th

The City Council Monday authorized half-the-cost or about $16,000 for widening 15th from K to M from city funds providing the abutting property owners pay the remaining costs of the proposed project.

Public Works Director D. L. Erickson recommended the city pay half the widening cost rather than the $15,000 resurfacing cost because of city policy.

Under current policy, streets in the downtown area are resurfaced at the abutting property's cost.

Would Be 70 Ft.

Erickson has estimated the cost at $32,000 for widening the 50-foot street to 70 feet plus resurfacing. It would complete the widening of 15th from R to K.

Last week, Erickson reported petitions for the widening and repaving would be circulated if the city would share part of the cost. A majority of property owners are reported to be favorable.

In other action, the Council held up final reading on two proposed paving districts for further study and reports on street widths.

Paving For Normal

One was District 1656 for paving Normal to a width of 26 feet from 40th east to near Cotner Blvd. or about 5 blocks.

Planning Director Douglas Brogden said the City-County Planning Commission urged consideration of arterial width for Normal as an extension of Capitol Parkway.

One suggested solution would be to set the 26-foot width to the north of the streets' center line.

Then, as traffic increases and money is available, the 26-foot width south of center could be paved to make a 4-lane arterial.

Aim For Arterial

Councilman Dell Tyrell said the city should aim for arterial-width paving of Normal from South to 48th, which is now unimproved.

The other district involving an arterial street is 70th from Dudley to Holdrege plus Dudley from 69th to Meadow Lane Addition.

Under city policy, additional cost beyond a 26-foot width in residential areas is borne by city.

Might Get Aid

Public Works Director D. L. Erickson said Normal might be eligible for federal aid funds, but current city allocations have been committed.

Ace Clown Adler Dies

New York (AP) — Felix Adler, one of America's best known clowns and a veteran of nearly half a century under the big top, died Monday while undergoing an operation. He was 62.

Adler

He joined Ringling Bros. at the age of 13 and his entire circus life was with them. Last May he severed his connection with the show which had merged years ago with Barnum and Bailey.

Generations of youngsters—and their parents—chortled over Adler's grotesque costume, with its exaggerated padding behind.

24 Maryland Votes Slated For Kennedy

Washington (AP) — Sen. John F. Kennedy (D-Mass) apparently is about to pocket Maryland's 24 Democratic presidential nominating votes.

Kennedy's headquarters announced the senator and Gov. Millard Tawes of Maryland will hold a joint news conference in the Annapolis state house Tuesday.

Reliable sources said the governor will announce that a slate of Kennedy delegates will be entered with Tawes' approval in the state's May 17 primary.

There also is a preferential presidential ballot, on which Kennedy seems likely to be the only Democratic entrant.

The Massachusetts senator has announced he will file in the May 10 primary. While it is not binding on the 16-vote delegation, he seems certain to get the state's support, particularly if he goes unopposed in the balloting.

City Employes To Get Name Badges

Some 250 city employes will soon be wearing personal identification badges.

Police officers presently wear name plates and Personnel Director Ray Ramsay recommended other city employes who deal with the public be included.

The City Council approved the badges which the city can make with its equipment for about 25 or 30 cents each.

Council Denies Zone Change

Proposed zoning for a service station at Vine and Cotner Blvd. was denied by the City Council in a 4-3 vote Monday.

The triangular tract, located at the southwest corner of the intersection, is owned by Garland Shields and is presently zoned single-family.

The City-County Planning Commission had recommended denial of the proposed zoning change.

Voting to adopt the commission's recommendations were Boosalis, Kinsey, Thorne, and Lewis. Voting against were Mayor Boyles, DuTeau and Tyrrell.

The Carter Division of the Humble Oil & Refining Co. proposed the site for a new service station.

The commission cited a business district at this intersection would create traffic hazards because numerous streets and the railroad intersect at this point, the proximity to a city park, and ample business zoning elsewhere in the area.

The applicant said the property is unusable for single-family residences and noted the northwest corner is already zoned commercial.

DAD, FIREMEN ACT QUICKLY, SAVE INFANT

St. Paul, Neb. (AP) — Eight-week-old Roger Ray Vorak was alive Monday because of his father's skill in artificial respiration and the speedy response of the St. Paul fire department emergency rescue unit.

While Roger Ray's mother was in the basement of the farm home doing a laundry Monday and the father outside, the infant managed to work a crib blanket over his face. The mother, Mrs. Alvin D. Vorak, said when she came upstairs his face was turning black.

Vorak, who had learned artificial respiration in the Army, immediately started to apply it to the baby while the St. Paul rescue squad was en route to the home. The squad made the 4½ mile run in 6 minutes and started its resuscitator. When a physician arrived moments later, he pronounced the infant out of danger.

Mental Patients

Sacramento, Calif. (AP) — California is treating 63,313 mental patients — 48,433 in hospitals and 14,880 outside of hospitals.

Zoning Appeals Board Appointed

The 5-member Board of Zoning Appeals was officially appointed Monday by the City Council.

Four members formerly served on the Board of Adjustments, replaced as the Board of Zoning Appeals in the city charter amendments approved in 1959.

The new member is James C. Shelley, named to a 3-year term, who succeeds Henry Grether Jr.

Reappointed members are L. R. Ricketts, one-year term; John Hobbs, two-year; Robert C. Russell, 4-year, and Joseph Ginsburg, 5-year.

Hall Of Fame Takes State's Cook, Altube

Fort Worth, Tex. (AP) — Sam Houston, the fighting Texas general whose victory over Santa Anna advanced by half a century the opening of the cattlemen's west, was voted Monday into the National Cowboy Hall of Fame.

Houston was one of 21 men so honored by trustees of the hall of fame in a meeting here.

Honorees named by states this year include James H. Cook and Pedro Altube of Nebraska and Matt Crowley of North Dakota. South Dakota deferred its nomination until next year.

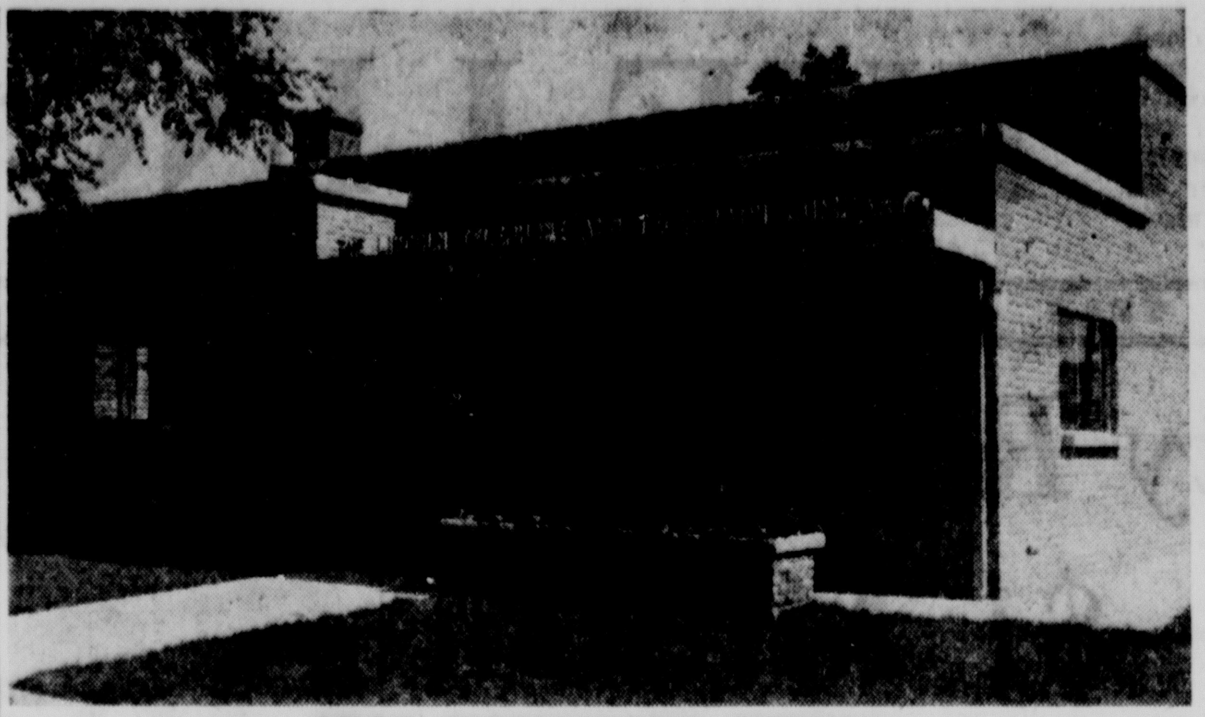
The trustees named Claud Olseon as new trustee for South Dakota.

Others besides Houston named "at large" were:

Cyrus Holliday, founder of the Santa Fe railway system.

Frederic Remington, noted western artist and sculptor.

Alexander H. Swan, one of the biggest cattle empire developers of the inter-mountain region.



LT&T EXCHANGE OFFICE

An important part of Hebron's new $300,000 dial telephone system is LT&T's attractive exchange and office building which houses the dial central equipment and the area office for Thayer County.

Hebron Gets Dial Phones

A new dial telephone system at the Hebron exchange of the Lincoln Telephone and Telegraph Company will go into service at 1:00 a.m. Sunday morning, February 7. It will provide local dial service for 1,015 telephones at Hebron. LT&T exchanges in Thayer County at Davenport, Carleton and Bruning are now dial operated.

The Hebron installation ushers in direct distance dialing for telephone users at the LT&T exchanges of Hebron, Bruning, Carleton and Davenport and the American Communications Company exchanges of Chester and Hubbell. Station-to-station long distance calls can be dialed direct from 1,900 telephones in these exchanges to over 115,000 telephones in 83 dial exchanges in southeast Nebraska.

Nelson To Study Chamber Report

A Lincoln Chamber of Commerce report on its business development fund was referred Monday to City Atty. Ralph Nelson for study.

Mayor Pat Boyles said payment of a $1,284 contribution by the city water and light department to the Chamber fund would be withheld pending Nelson's report back to the City Council.

A 1955 city legal opinion held such contribution is legal if the money is used for business expansion activities and there is reasonable certainty that increased water and electric sales result.

Better Uses

C. O. Blanchard, a protesting taxpayer, appeared again before the council to charge that the money "could be contributed to better benefit the city than the Chamber of Commerce."

Blanchard suggested that the money could be better used "to fill the hundreds of chuckholes in the city streets."

"These chuckholes are dangerous," Blanchard said. "The loss of a finger in an auto accident would not be reimbursable."

Blanchard's charges and suggestions brought answers from the council and other city officials.

Repairs Started

It was pointed out most of the chuckholes appeared after the thaw last weekend and repair crews were already at work.

As to diverting water and light revenue to street repairs or the city general fund, both Finance Director James Mallon and Nelson pointed out that proprietory or non-tax funds could not be so transferred under the city charter.

"Before you talk for 20 minutes again," one councilman told Blanchard, "you should get a few facts first on what the city can and cannot do."

The Chamber report referred to Nelson for study stated that $9,758.13 was spent from its "business development fund" during 1959.

$4,000 For Lots

Major items were business expansion committee budget, $1,950; 56th and Benton industrial tract expenses, $2,166; purchase of lots from city, $4,000, and balance largely for meetings with industrial prospects.

Between 1941 and 1958, the Chamber reported Fund expenditures of $849,166. Major items were Vets Building, $175,000; Lincoln Air Force Base reactivation, $400,424, and Elgin Watch plant, $100,762.

The Chamber reported the city's $1,200 contribution in 1959 was appropriated to the business expansion committee budget.

MacArthur A Bit Better

New York (AP) — General of the Army Douglas MacArthur showed gradual improvement Monday, although his prostate condition had apparently involved his kidneys.

MacArthur entered Lenox Hill Hospital last Friday for treatment of a nonmalignant enlargement of the prostate gland. He had celebrated his 80th birthday the previous Tuesday.

CASE STUDY 7
Columbus Professional Engineer Adds Electrically Heated Rooms

"Radiant Electric Heat Feels Warmer-More Comfortable"

Engineer John Senften likes installations simple and practical. That's why, several months ago, he decided to use electric heat in the new addition to his home at 3212 Twenty-first Street, Columbus. All of the wiring and equipment was installed in less than half a day total time.

The two bedroom addition (about 12 x 29 feet) with baseboard radiant heating costs less than $5.00 a month to operate, John reported.

And from Mrs. Senften — "Electric heat feels warmer at 72 degrees than the rest of our house — which we also keep at 72 degrees but heat with a furnace." She has already asked what it would cost to convert the rest of the house to electric heating.

ELECTRIC HEAT

For more information and your free copy of "Questions and Answers about Electric Heat", contact your local public power agency.

FOUR TYPES OF ELECTRIC HEATING NOW AVAILABLE

Radiant Electric Cable — Embedded into ceiling or walls, it's completely concealed. Like warming by sunshine. You feel comfortable at lower temperature. Healthful.

Baseboard Electric Heaters — Install along outside walls. Warm convected air rises gently while heat radiates out at floor level. Ends cold floor problem.

Radiant Electric Panels — Glass, metal or ceramic panel recessed into wall radiates sun-like heat without draft. Ideal for bathrooms. Easy to install and clean. Safe!

Built-in Wall Units—Use one or more in a room. Some types have fans to increase heating capacity. Available with built-in thermostats to control heat automatically.

Algiers Revolt Has Bloodless Collapse

Algiers (AP)—The French insurrection in Algiers ended ingloriously Monday with one of the two leaders in custody and the other in flight.

The last die-hards marched out of the barricades after getting a harsh Army dictate to form a unit with the French Foreign Legion to fight Algeria's Moslem rebels or go home and face possible trial for subversion.

Moving firmly to end the 8-day uprising, President Charles de Gaulle's government laid down the unbending alternatives. They were relayed to the insurgents by a paratroop colonel at a meeting behind the barricades Sunday night.

Agree To Join Legion

A government spokesman said 420 of the insurgents who surrendered with their goateed military leader, Pierre LaGaillarde, agreed to serve with the Legion as a special unit. Gen. Jean Crepin, Algiers corps commander, said they would fight the Algerian Nationalists who have been in revolt against French rule for 5 years.

Joseph Ortiz, the saloon keeper who was political boss of the insurrection, fled as his comrades filed out of the barricades to surrender. The spokesman had no news of his whereabouts.

The spokesman said all the men with LaGaillarde were told they could return to their families but if they did so they faced investigations.

These investigations would be made by authorities sent from Paris, not local officials who might be sympathetic. Those insurgents who were found to have participated in an "attack on the internal security of the state" would be tried, the spokesman said.

It Began Jan. 24

The settlers' rising that began Jan. 24 with a street battle in which 20 died collapsed without another shot fired.

The insurgents were loaded into army trucks and taken to a camp near Algiers.

Down came the insurgents' barricades of paving stone and rubble — bristling symbols of their defiance of de Gaulle's policy of self-determination for Algeria's 9 million Moslems.

When the showdown came the screaming mobs who had cheered the insurgents with cries of "Algeria is French" were nowhere in sight.

Socialite Is Slain

. . . Ex-Beauty Queen

Columbus, Miss (UPI) — Mystery which shocked this quiet Mississippi city Monday surrounded the coat hanger wire garroting of a young socialite wife while her husband and children were at Sunday school.

Police, throwing a "co-ordinated effort" by state, county and city officers into the case, indicated there are "suspects."

A formal inquest was conducted into the strangling of beautiful ash blonde Mrs. Gene Cain Tate, 32, whose body was found lying in the garage of her home when her family returned from church.

No Signs of Struggle

She was the wife of a prominent Columbus business man, Irvin Tate, the owner of a business equipment firm, and the mother of 4 children. She was a former Columbus High School beauty queen and she and her husband had been high school sweethearts.

The coat hanger wire had been twisted about her neck and the killer strangled her with it. Police said there were no signs of a violent struggle.

Neighbors said Mrs. Tate had appeared troubled recently. She stopped going to church about 6 weeks ago without explanation, they said. The Tates had been active in a Presbyterian church here.

Car Crash Claims Ex-Tekamah Pair

Vero Beach, Fla. (AP) — The body of Jack Houston, 45, a prominent citrus grower, was found Monday when divers raised the wreckage of a station wagon from the Royal Palm Blvd. Canal.

Houston had been sought since Saturday when his 35-year-old wife drowned in the Indian River nearby. They formerly lived at Tekamah, Neb.

A spokesman for Sheriff Sam Joyce said the sheriff planned to order an autopsy if there was any doubt the two deaths were accidental.

The bodies were found about 3-quarters of a mile apart. Investigators did not at once piece together a version of how the couple died, but said Houston's car apparently was traveling at high speed when it plunged into 10 feet of water.

'DR.' ROBERT V. SPEARS

Spears Says He Is Guilty

. . . Dyer Act Violation

Phoenix, Ariz. (UPI)—Texas naturopath Robert V. Spears, 64, questioned by the FBI about an airliner crash that took 42 lives, Monday pleaded guilty to a violation of the Dyer Act.

"I'm guilty," said the bespectacled, white-haired prisoner when asked by Federal Judge David Ling how he would plead. The Dyer Act covers interstate transportation of a vehicle without the owner's permission.

Violation of the act carries a maximum penalty of 5 years in jail or a $5,000 fine, or both. Judge Ling said he would study the portly doctor's case and a probation report. He set Feb. 15 for sentencing.

FBI agents suspect that Spears might have duped a former prison inmate, William Allen Taylor, 58, of Tampa, into taking his seat aboard the ill-fated airliner. Spears said he gave his ticket to Taylor because his friend wanted to get medical treatment in Texas.

10 Still Trapped In Nippon Mine

Sapporo, Japan (Tuesday) (AP)—Gas-masked rescue workers penetrated to the bottom levels of the smoldering Yubari coal mine where 32 miners died in an explosion Monday.

Ten miners are missing in the gas-choked pits and believed dead. Twenty survivors were brought to the surface Monday.

A gas explosion trapped 62 persons in the mine at Yubari on Japan's northern island of Hokkaido.

Incorporation Articles Filed By Peterson Building Corp.

Articles of incproration were filed Monday for the Peterson Building Corp., of Lincoln, formed, according to incorporators, to develop a 300-car parking garage on the southeast corner of 12th and P.

Incorporators were Byron Dunn, Albert A. Held, Glenn M. Yaussi and Myron Weil, all officers of the National Bank of Commerce, and Clarence E. Swanson of Hovland-Swanson.

The firm was authorized to issue $500,000 in capital stock.

The incorporators announced that they are negotiating with owners of the quarter-block Peterson Building to gain a 99-year lease, raze the present structure and construct a car-parking facility.

Owners of the building are Mr. and Mrs. Al Spohnheimer. The building now has about 28 tenants including Russell Sporting Goods and Remington-Rand.

An option to lease the Peterson building has been extended for 30 days and negotiations are in progress, incorporators said.

Israel, Arabs Show Stepup In Hostilities

Jerusalem (UPI) — Israel and the United Arab Republic Monday exchanged threats of war following sporadic troop clashes along the Syrian frontier.

In Cairo, the government declared a state of emergency. All leaves were canceled throughout the armed forces and it was reported Egyptian troops already were moving toward the disputed sector.

In Israel the situation was equally tense, with Premier David Ben Gurion threatening a new Israeli military campaign if the United Nations peace force failed to prevent what he called further Arab violations in a demilitarized zone along the Syrian-Israel border.

Cairo radio declared Monday night that the U.A.R. stood "ready to clamp both jaws (Egypt and Syria) and crush Israel between them."

Bevan Said Better

The Light That Didn't Fail

By WILLIAM O. DOBLER

Few organizations and their individual members have achieved over the years the prominence which has been gained by the Nebraska Rural Electric Association. The organization has been the center of many spirited disputes within the state and its members are at this time in the middle of a rate disagreement with their wholesale supplier.

Biggest Boom In 30 Years

But as this organization of rural electric co-operatives meets for its 24th annual session in Lincoln, it is well to point out that it has a thoroughly constructive side and that is the thing which has given it strength and permanence. Back in the early 1930's, the thought of a network of electric lines serving the farms and small towns of such prairie states as Nebraska was enough to brand the thinker as slightly off his rocker. For political or selfish as well as practical reasons, it was believed by many that there was simply no future in any effort to light the darkness of the Nebraska countryside.

Not only did such endeavors seem like a waste of time and money but private power interests were not at all in favor of any furtherance of the cause of public power. They did not want themselves to serve what they believed was the financially risky rural areas of the country but they did not want, at the same time, the growth of any entity in competition to them.

They saw big profits and easy money in the highly developed metropolitan areas and they saw a farm economy that was busted. But fortunately, the farmers themselves had confidence even in the face of great adversity. While the products they had to sell were virtually useless and many of them even had no products, farming was a way of life with them and a way which had long ago taught them the virtue of perseverance.

★

Many farmers in those years did lose their land and moved into the metropolitan areas. But some hung on and they saw in rural electrification part of the means of modernization that was to lift them to a new place of prominence. Electrification was to be the answer to many things, including irrigation of the land and defeat for the ravages of drought. It took years of planning and organizing before the first rural electric district was formed in Nebraska but it and subsequent organizations have paid handsome dividends.

It was a major job getting a federal program to handle the financing for building of lines and transmission facilities. It has been a major job since then to protect the federal program and keep it from destruction by selfish private power interests. The thing which has been most important is the success of the rural organizations.

These districts are as strong today financially as any private power organizations. They have religiously paid back to the government every cent they borrowed when their notes became due. Many have paid out their notes years in advance and the record will not produce one bad loan among the millions the government has invested in rural electrification.

Certainly, this is a proud record and it puts to shame those who once denounced the program on an economic basis. But even greater than their financial success has been the overall influence of these districts upon agriculture as an industry. Nothing in the history of agriculture has so profoundly affected this business.

The Early Scoffers

Electrification of the farms has provided the power with which farm effort and output have been many times expanded. It has made it possible for the farmer to greatly improve his standard of living and to broaden his economic base so as to more effectively ward off the natural disasters that befall him from time to time. It has not carried him completely out of the wilderness because it has not been able to solve the price or market problems which face the farmer. But it has done more in less than three decades than anything before it has done and anything in the future is likely to do.

As today's leaders of the rural electrification program gather this week in Lincoln, they have cause to look back over the future with great pride in real accomplishments. They can see many problems and pitfalls ahead but there can be little doubt that the roadblocks thrown in the way will be hurdled and ever greater achievements will be realized.

On With Statehood

Now that Alaska and Hawaii have been given the status of statehood to which they were entitled, it might be assumed by the general public that this sort of question will not bother Congress again for a good many years. Statehood in its strict form may not be a bother but the philosophy it involves is still a vital factor before the House and Senate.

It is found in the issue of self-government for the District of Columbia. Just as Alaska and Hawaii deserved statehood, so the District of Columbia deserves the right to govern itself. Without self-government and the right to vote, the District stands as a glaring example of injustice in the heart of what we sell to the world as the land of freedom and opportunity.

But a bill which would give the District the right to govern itself is bottled up in a southern-dominated House district committee. It can get out of this committee only if the current drive for a discharge petition is successful. If successful, the self-government bill for the District would by-pass the committee and go directly to the floor of the House where passage is considered likely. The Senate has passed a similar bill five times in the past decade.

There are now more than 150 names on the discharge petition while 219 are needed. From Nebraska, only the name of Rep. Glenn Cunningham of Omaha now appears on the petition. It is hoped that Reps. Larry Brock, Donald F. McGinley and Phil Weaver add their names to the petition as quickly as possible. Certainly, the entire Nebraska delegation in the House must realize that there can be no valid argument against self-government for the District. This has been a battle of many years and it is time that it is brought to a successful conclusion.

Retirement Of A Bishop

Force of events, or just plain force, has accounted for the departure of a considerable company of European leaders in this present passionate period. But not so with Bishop Otto Dibelius, head of the Evangelical church of Germany, and chief shepherd of 40 million churchmen.

Bishop Dibelius has announced his intended retirement next year, not as a man of Christian action, but as an official presiding officer.

This will not be the bishop's first retirement, although the first by his own volition. He was thrice arrested during Hitler's time and finally ordered retired because of his unyielding opposition to Nazi philosophy. Those were the years which tried the very essence of every leader's character, and, without doubt, of those few who were courageous enough to resist ruthless power none were more courageous than Dibelius.

Bishop Dibelius never retreated an inch before Naziism and he has been no less resolute against communism. He has been one of that clear-headed breed never to be distracted or confounded by names and details and always aware of the root issue that has divided the world since the beginning, namely that most people do or do not exist for exploitation by a self-appointed few with no other prospect than faceless sacrifice for which there is no ultimate justice or reward.

To the clear thinking, the superman thesis is a throwback to the primitive condition of the original cave and jungle before the enlightened impulses of brotherhood, justice and love emerged. The world issue is whether to surrender and go back or stand resolute and go forward.

Retired or not the good bishop has already given the world a glowing example, and belongs historically in that company of great individuals to whom retreat is unthinkable.

Bigger Soil Bank

The Department of Agriculture has said that more than 28 million acres of farmland will be in the soil bank in 1960.

This will be about 5.5 million more than were in the conservation reserve in 1959. It will cost in the neighborhood of $335 million. Moreover, if the administration's program continues as planned there will be ultimately 60 million acres in the reserve at a cost of $530 million per crop year. The target date for this is 1963.

The conditions of the soil bank are quite well known. Land is taken from production for periods of three to 10 years, made subject to soil, water and wildlife conservation and ultimately continued indefinitely as a soil reserve or dumped back into production to pose a greater surplus crisis later on.

It is hard to justify the soil bank in many instances. It is a costly expedient apparently returning little to the public for its pains. When combined with Secretary Benson's plan to eliminate crop controls on remaining productive land, as has already happened in the case of corn, the costly take-out has not been sufficient to reduce production below the years when 90 per cent of parity and crop allotments were in effect. Moreover, it has served as a balancing factor in the rural budget based on a non-productive gimmick of no assured permanence, and in that respect it has fostered a delusion by concealing the true plight of the agricultural economy.

However, there are some mitigating factors. Insecure as the soil bank program may be it has tended to keep the farmer in place and prolong the life of the family sized farm. It has also played for precious time during which a farm readjustment may be made without a catastrophe. But as yet the program has given no clear cut directive on how this readjustment should proceed, nor yet given a convincing argument on what ultimate great good will come of it all. And most certainly it is not liberating the farmer as Secretary Benson is fond of saying. A farmer who must bargain away a goodly share of his productive rights for survival is definitely not a free and self-determining operator.

Missile Lag Makes Republicans Smart

WASHINGTON — President Eisenhower has decided on a vigorous personal campaign to convince the American people and the world that we are catching up with Moscow on missiles. This was behind his speech in Los Angeles last week.

Ike has ordered all cabinet officers who talk about defense to stress the positive side of our own developments in rocketry, and to emphasize that we are actually stronger—when all weapons are taken into consideration.

This line, of course, fits into the Republican campaign. However, the President acted only partly because of political motives. The National Security Council, in a confidential report, had warned that Russia's spectacular rocket and space achievements were convincing the world the United States had become a second-class power. So the Security Council recommended a propaganda campaign to convince the world to the contrary.

Note 1—Assistant Secretary of Defense Murray Snyder, chief of press relations for the Pentagon, has urged defense officials to hit back at newsmen who critize defense policy. He suggested it is better to give vague answers and to remind the press that President Eisenhower knows best about military matters. If reporters ask unfriendly questions, Snyder advises, officials should accuse the newsmen of slander, smear, and unpatriotic behavior.

Note 2 — The President was really miffed at his Chief of Information, Ambassador George Allen (no relation to the bridge partner), for stating publicly that America's space lag had hurt American prestige abroad. Ambassador Allen, who is a career diplomat, could not be fired for making the statement, but it was completely counter to what the President has been telling the public and he was really furious.

DORIS FLEESON

Benson Sticky Pal For Nixon

WASHINGTON — Vice President Nixon is deep in conference these days with all manner of experts as he works at his dual problem of convincing the voters that while they never had it so good he can make it much, much better.

Among the Nixon conferees are men sincerely alarmed about the farm situation as a national as well as a political problem. Their presence suggests that there may yet be drama in the vice president's relations with the administration.

For what distinguishes Agriculture Secretary Benson in this passive administration with its emphasis on team play is that he carries the fight to all potential aggressors at his own convenience, not theirs. The late Harold L. Ickes never lodged a barb more securely in a fellow-New Dealer he suspected of anti-Ickes plotting than Benson did in the vice president by embracing him publicly last month.

Benson is as controversial as the vice president; his policies are under sustained attack which will become even more heated as the campaign nears. The secretary of course knows all about the vain attempts of farm belt Republicans to get him fired and he knows that they have had Nixon's ear.

☆ ☆ ☆

But the Benson middle name it not Taft for nothing—he is a distant relative of the late senator from Ohio. He calmly said he would expect Nixon to carry out the Benson program because the vice president "has participated" in the development of that program.

The vice president has prudently let the challenge lie and at his campaign opener in Chicago spoke of farm policy in general terms. But the situation forms the backbone of the primary fight Senator Humphrey is making in Wisconsin for the Democratic nomination right now.

In the small towns and rural areas of that state Humphrey dwells upon the "deflation of agriculture and business in the Midwest" and the steady decline of farm prices. The senator puts the blame upon Benson and with relish quotes Nixon praise of Benson and the Benson embrace of Nixon.

☆ ☆ ☆

The Humphrey outline will echo all over the Midwest as the campaign extends to adjoining farm states. Democrats who have had considerable experience of Benson's tenacity and Nixon's ruthlessness feel they have reason to hope that the combination will pay off for them.

Left alone, Nixon could probably plaster over the cracks in farm policy for the purposes of 1960. But Benson has the politically inconvenient conviction that the Benson policies are morally right. He may or may not stand still for the Nixon political necessities.

In other cabinet departments the vice president has no real problems. The Eisenhower troops are in his train and apparently find it congenial. They cannot, however, contribute any grass roots strength, for rarely have virtually all a president's appointees been so remote from the main stream of American politics. In this respect the vice president is singularly isolated.

LA VERNA HASSLER

Patchwork Prairie Country

Making supper tonight turned out to be such an adventure. First of all, I was going to have chicken chow mein, except that I was using left-over pork roast instead of chicken. When I opened the can of bean sprouts, the can seemed to be corroded inside so I was fearful of using them. The pork, onions and celery were left alone so I had to jig that up somewhat, I decided. I added tomato juice and oregano and let it simmer. It began to smell like a Mexican dish instead of the original Chinese that it started out to be. Something had to be substituted for the noodles I was not going to use, so I thought of putting dumplings on top of the meat and tomato mixture and letting it simmer until done.

At the supper table The Farmer looked at the plate as if he were afraid it was going to explode in his face. I admit you don't see pink dumplings very often. They had taken on this color from the tomatoes but were light and fluffy as a cloud. I had added some grated Italian cheese to the batter and they were as good as they looked.

I began by telling The Farmer, "This started out to be chicken chow mein—"

"It looks as if the chicken got away," he commented as he finished taking a bite of pork.

"Chow mein can be made with either pork or chicken," I added. I told him the strange turn of events in changing a Chinese dish into a Mexican one and topping it off with a bit of Italian flavored cheese.

"We really should wear sombreros and eat with chopsticks while conversing in Italian," I reminded the Farmer.

"Since we're not going formal, let's just keep it simple," he said. "My Irish ancestors are probably shaking their fingers at me now."

"At least you won't find overalls in it, like Mrs. Murphy found in her chowder," I told him after recalling the humorous song of several years ago.

After we had eaten, we agreed it was a very tasty evening meal. We licked the platter clean.

☆ ☆ ☆

We were sitting quietly last night in the living room, when sparrows began bombarding our windows in both living room and dining room.

They spend the night in the juniper trees just outside the windows, but something had sent them winging away in flight. Seeing the lighted windows, they thought it was an easy way of escape.

I looked out into the snow-covered yard where the moonlight made it seem almost daylight. There was the big yellow cat sneaking away with a sparrow in its mouth.

It's difficult to say who gave the warning. Mrs. Sparrow probably tapped her wing against her husband's shoulder and whispered "George! There's a burglar downstairs!" And George no doubt mumbled something about women always hearing noises in the dead of night, and how about going back to sleep.

By that time is was too late to investigate. The prowler had already taken what it had come after — George.

The snow is deep and silent across the cornfields, which makes it almost impossible for the calves to find the corn. Today The Farmer started to feed them oats along with alfalfa hay to tide them over until some of the snow melts. The way it is banked around the buildings, it looks as if it will be the Fourth of July before that happens.

Quest For Learning

Hyannis, Neb.

I appreciated the recent front-page article in reference to a University of Nebraska degree being presented Jan. 30 to Mrs. Hazel Lyne at the age of 59.

I do not know Mrs. Lyne, but I admire her courage and perseverence. I agree that while it is better to secure a degree earlier in life, yet there are compensations in receiving a degree at any age. In maturity one may not learn new facts so easily as younger students do, but the greater maturity is capable of appropriating and assimilating all learning on the basis of experience.

Mrs. Lyne's age does not seem so advanced to me as it would be to a young person, because I am 71 years of age. While I received my first degree when I was 40, I have in the past year received two degrees — one honorary and one earned. I have completed work for another degree and shall attend summer school in 1960. I had enough residence credits so that I could do this work in absentia. It is not to be assumed that this work has been done in the U of N., where I have credits from attending 24 weeks of summer sessions. My degrees have been received from an extra-mural institution, Burton College and Seminary, Manitou Springs, Colo.

Mrs. Lyne's outstanding achievement should be an inspiration to others of mature age to improve their own educational status.

The Punishment

Lincoln, Neb.

There must be many who have often wondered at the wisdom of abolishing the whipping post in the public square, especially in cases of inhuman brutality to helpless little children. Preschool-age groups seem to be the brunt of such savagery because they are unable to submit the truth of their hunger and bruised bodies. Older children should be watched by their school teachers and if there is sufficient evidence of abuse, an investigation should be made. It is the fear of parents that covers up months and years of mental and physical suffering of our little children.

One cannot imagine a child around or under age five capable of intentionally misbehaving to the extent of such punishment as starving and beating. If only the parents could so be reprimanded!

The law of today says the maximum penalty for such acts is five years imprisonment. Judge White in righteous indignation has had the courage to come forth and dole out the full extremity of the law in one such case. If he holds fast to this for the full length of time and follows through in every such case, it may slow down and in time stop this sickening pastime.

For adults who take their frustrations out on babies, to take their freedom away for a lengthy time would seem to be the only language they can understand. Congratulations to Judge White, and may others follow his example.

Same Old Song

Hastings, Neb.

Sen. Curtis was right for once in his life when he told North Platters that "the government is broke."

And worse yet is the editorial statement: "On the date the senator said that, the national indebtedness stood at $291 billion and that represents $32 billion more than when Mr. Eisenhower entered the White House and $20 billion more than when he began his second term."

The above statements come from Republican sources high in command. The grand old Republican party has been led to an ignominious slaughter at the hands of an incompetent leadership who even now, despite the figures quoted, insist on declaring the Republican battle cry in the approaching campaign should be the fake cry of "Peace and Prosperity." It's the same old cry only on a different tune that Herbert Hoover chanted about "two chickens in every pot and two cars in every garage."

The Democratic party is not chargeable for this condition of affairs! For seven long years, Eisenhower has had his hand on the brake—his veto. Only in one instance has the Democratic Congress passed a veto act over his head and that was on the housing bill. Such a cry could only further the fakery that has been going on for the past seven years.

Cuban Scene

Lincoln, Neb.

Everything indicates that Castro is rapidly turning Cuba into a communist police state, and in the process grabbing the property of both the natives and American citizens. Yet W. T. Davis counsels patience, tolerance—in a word, appeasement. Although certain the Cubans have benefited from the revolution, he fails to list a single freedom they have gained.

Also, Mr. Davis considers President Eisenhower's meeting with the "unspeakable" Franco a major crime. This leftist hatred of Spain is universal. Could it be because Spain is the only European country in which a communist regime has been overthrown? It required civil war, but Spain succeeded where Poland and Hungary failed.

California Educator Offered Study Job

. . . MAY TACKLE STATE HIGHER EDUCATION PROBE

A legislative council committee Monday offered the job of directing a statewide study of higher education in Nebraska to Dr. Lyman A. Glenny of Sacramento State College.

Dr. Glenny has been in Nebraska the past week working up preliminary guidelines to follow in a study on which the Legislative Council Committee on Higher Education is to base its recommendations on state aid to higher education at the 1961 legislative session.

The total cost of the study, including Dr. Glenny's salary, is not to exceed $25,000. The Legislature last year voted $30,000 for the project. Dr. Glenny's pay is not to exceed $9,750.

Dr. Glenny, who has not yet been offered a formal contract, said he will seek a leave of absence from the 1960 fall semester from his duties as associate professor of government before formally accepting.

Stay In State

If he accepts, he will stay in Nebraska continuously from June to Dec. 20, the date the committee stipulated the report should be finished.

He has taken part in similar studies for the states of Utah and Montana, and the Western Interstate Commission on Higher Education.

Dr. Glenny said 6 to 8 committees of 4 members each will be appointed from heads of Nebraska's university, teachers colleges, private colleges and junior colleges.

Earlier, Dr. Glenny gave the committee a list of questions which he said should be answered during the study, including the question of state financial assistance to junior colleges. The questions were drawn up by various institution heads throughout the state.

DR. L. A. GLENNY

Give True Picture

Dr. Glenny said the questions must be answered in order to have a true picture of higher education in the state. All but 10 or 15 of the states have already made such studies, and many continue their studies year after year.

Here are a few questions:

What will the financial resources for the various types of colleges be in the next 10 years? How can you co-ordinate the activities of public and private schools, and the two types of public colleges—university and teachers colleges—in order to offer the most education at the least cost?

Dr. Glenny suggested a list of research projects on programs, enrollment and population, student affairs, building utilization and needs, faculties, finances of institutions, state finances and state adminstration and control in order to round out a body of information on which the committee can recommend legislation on state aid.

As for helping out the nonpublic schools with state funds, Dr. Jack Rodgers, secretary of the Legislative Council, said the most common method practiced in the country is a system of scholarships or grants-in-aid to the students, not the colleges.

Girl Injured As Auto Drags Her

Mitchell (AP) — Shirley Johnson, 16-year-old daughter of Edgar Johnson of Mitchell, was dragged 30 feet by her car Monday on Highway 29, north of Mitchell.

She suffered a shoulder fracture and severe bruises and was hospitalized at Scottsbluff.

Investigators said the car hit a bridge railing, the door flew open and she was knocked partially out of the vehicle. The girl was dragged about 30 feet before the car came to a halt.

Swine Theme Of Humboldt Farmers Day

Swine production was the theme for the 11th annual Ag Day at Humboldt Monday sponsored by the Humboldt Chamber of Commerce and the Extension service.

An estimated 100 southeastern Nebraska farmers attended the event. They were treated to a free pancake feed, courtesy of the Chamber of Commerce, and a day-long program that included judging, features and a panel discussion on swine.

Winners of the contest which evaluated butcher hogs for backfat thickness, carcass length and grade classification were: first: Dick Badberg of Humboldt; second, Lewis Clokes of Humboldt, and 3rd, Billy Ankrom of Shubert.

Tom Aitken, Richardson Co. Extension agent, termed the event "educational in producing community interest and discussion toward production of better hogs."

Drs. Paul Guyer and Leo Lucas, extension animal husbandrymen at the University of Nebraska, assisted in the day's events.

Jarnes Says Shortage In Nurses Here

Mrs. Lauretta Jarnes, executive secretary for District 3 of the Nebraska State Nurses Assn., has made an appeal to all inactive registered nurses to offer their services for private duty.

"Twice last week we had calls for 4 private duty nurses and none were available on our Lincoln registry," she said.

When there are no private nurses, critically ill patients must be cared for by the regular duty staff and as a consequence may suffer because of lack of time to devote to them, Mrs. Jarnes continued.

"I hope many registered nurses will volunteer to work a few nights a week," she said, adding that the critical shortage was in the afternoon and evening shifts.

Ironically, she said, there are more part-time nurses available in the summer and early fall months, but they are needed most in the winter and early spring months when more people are ill.

Official records show there are 1,008 registered nurses in Lancaster County but only 726 are active.

Census Post To Swanson

Former State Treasurer Carl G. Swanson of Lincoln was appointed technical officer for the 1960 census of the 1st Congressional District which will get underway April 1.

In announcing the appointment Monday, Miss Anna M. Evans, district supervisor for the 1960 census of population and housing in this area, stated that Swanson would be in charge of training the 24 crew leaders to be selected before March 1.

Miss Evans also announced the appointment of Mrs. Donna J. Nelson as administrative clerk in charge of routine office procedures. During the absence of the district supervisor and technical officer, Mrs. Nelson will be in charge of the office, Miss Evans said.

Recruiting and testing of candidates for crew leaders to cover the 26-county area will begin this week under the supervision of Miss Evans and Swanson.

Daughter Of Jewish Ex-Mayor Of Dublin Will Become A Nun

Dublin, Ireland (AP) — A daughter of Robert Briscoe, former mayor of Dublin, has renounced the Jewish faith of her father to become a Carmelite nun.

Briscoe disclosed this, but refused to say which of his 3 daughters has adopted the Roman Catholic faith.

"This is a private matter," he said.

Briscoe was Dublin's first Jewish lord mayor. He held the office from 1956-1957.

He also has 4 sons.

A Nixon-Seaton Ticket Backed By Candidates

By Don Walton

A Nixon-Seaton presidential ticket has the overwhelming support of Nebraska candidates for delegate to the Republican national convention in Chicago next July.

That is the result of the first in a continuing survey of GOP delegate candidates undertaken by The Star.

Of 12 delegate (and alternate) candidates who replied directly to the survey, 10 flatly favored Vice President Nixon for the presidential nomination.

Seaton First

One cast his presidential preference to Secretary of the Interior Fred Seaton, the Hastings publisher who apparently will receive strong and possibly united vice presidential backing from the Nebraska delegation.

One delegate candidate named either Nixon or New York Gov. Nelson Rockefeller as his presidential choice.

Seaton received a firm commitment from 7 candidates, and endorsement from 4 othcy.

Goldwater Liked

One delegate candidate favored Arizona Sen. Barry Goldwater for the second spot.

Others mentioned for the vice presidential nomination included Sen. Everett Dirksen of Illinois; Rep. Walter Judd of Minnesota; Secretary of the Treasury Robert Anderson, and Rockefeller.

Nineteen Republicans have thus far filed as either delegate or alternate candidates for the convention. Seven did not reply to The Star survey.

Nebraskans will elect 18 GOP delegates—two from each congressional district and 10 delegates-at-large.

Those who replied (listing presidential choice first and vice presidential choice second):

Frank Landis, Lincoln: Nixon; Seaton or Rockefeller.
Keith Howard, Omaha: Nixon; Goldwater.
Robert S. Long, Omaha: Nixon; Dirksen, Seaton, Judd or Anderson.
Harvey Ferer, Omaha: Nixon; Seaton.
Jack Lough, Albion: Nixon; Seaton.
D. T. Fenton, Lincoln: Nixon; Seaton.
Rosemary L. McCain, Gering: Nixon; Seaton.
J. L. Dunlap, Milford: Nixon, Seaton.
Charles S. Reed, Omaha: Nixon; Seaton.
R. C. Johnson, Mead: Seaton.
Jim Wolf, Albion: Nixon or Rockefeller; Seaton or Rockefeller.
Ted Metcalfe, Omaha: Nixon; Seaton.

Announce Way To Help Drain All 8 Sinus Cavities Without Discomfort

New decongestant tablet for sinus congestion sufferers acts both to drain clogged sinus cavities and relieve distressing head pain

New York, N. Y. (Special) Announcement has been made of a new tablet development which has the remarkable ability to help drain clogged sinus cavities and thus relieve congestion and pressure. The headaches, pressure pains, stuffed-up head, nasal drip, clogged breathing—all the unrelenting symptoms the sinus sufferer knows so well—are attacked directly by improving drainage of the sinus areas.

Most remarkable of all is the fact that this is accomplished with extraordinary speed and without discomfort of any kind. This new tablet does its remarkable work internally, through the blood stream. It deposits into every drop of blood plasma a new medication which is carried to the sinus area, where it shrinks the swollen doors to the sinus cavities and helps drain away the pain-causing pressure and congestion.

The shrinking substance in this new tablet has been so successful topically in promoting drainage of the sinus cavities that it is now prescribed more widely by doctors than any material for this purpose. This new medication is now available at drug counters without the need for a prescription under the name, Dristan® Decongestant Tablets. Dristan Tablets cost only 98¢ for a bottle of 24 tablets. Buy and use Dristan Tablets with the absolute guarantee that they will drain away pain-causing pressure and congestion of the sinus cavities, relieve the pain and distress, or purchase price will be refunded.

Reds End Pacific Tests; Say 2nd Missile Hit Target Area

Moscow (AP)—The Soviet Union wound up its mid-Pacific rocket tests Monday with the announcement that a second missile landed in its ocean target area. Unlike the first one, there was no hint of how close it came to any bullseye staked out in advance.

"Measurement data again confirmed the high precision of the rocket flight guidance," the official announcement proclaimed. Tass distributed the bulletin around the world, and Moscow Radio broke into its programs with trumpet flourishings and stirring march tunes.

One Big Difference

The bulletin, coinciding with the start of a top-level Communist bloc meeting here for maximum political effect, showed one major difference from the announcement of the first test held Jan. 20.

That announcement said the first rocket landed only 1.24 miles from its predetermined target after a flight of 7,760 miles. Top speed was listed as 16,250 miles an hour.

Such information was omitted Monday, and there was no indication why.

(Moscow has never disclosed the launching site of its mid-Pacific rockets. It is believed to be east of the Caspian Sea, however, whence similar range missiles could reach almost any point in the United States.)

Tass said that the second rocket, fired at 7:58 p.m. (Moscow time) Sunday, landed "in the target area in the Pacific."

The final stages of both shots are believed to have been spotted by Western airplane pilots. A U.S. Navy patrol plane reported seeing what looked like a missile entering the atmosphere over the target area Sunday. Similar observances of the first shot were made by U.S. military sources.

'NAZI CLUB' STUDENTS SUSPENDED

Kansas City (AP) — Thirteen youths were ordered suspended from school Monday in the wake of a synagogue bombing investigation that disclosed the boys were members of neo-Nazi clubs in their high schools.

School Supt. James Hazlett, in announcing the suspensions, said the action had nothing to do with whether the youths were involved in the bombing or in painting swastikas on 4 other synagogues, but only because of their memberships in the secret organizations.

Uncle Sam Freezes Vast Estate Of 'Sweet Daddy'

Washington (AP) — Uncle Sam froze the huge estate of "Sweet Daddy" Grace Monday with a batch of court liens aimed at collection of nearly 6 million dollars in income tax claims against the Negro preacher.

The estate of the late head of the "House of Prayer for All People" has been estimated at up to 25 million dollars. The bulk has been willed to the church which the eccentric evangelist founded in the 1920s when he baptised his first followers in a mudhole.

At the time of his death in Los Angeles Jan. 12, Grace claimed a membership of 3 million, nearly all Negroes, in more than 60 cities.

1945 Through 1956

The bill for $5,966,000 in taxes for the years 1945 through 1956 is one of the largest ever entered by the Internal Revenue Service against an individual. The sums claimed range from $108,914 for 1946 to $1,531,063 for 1953.

The IRS filed the liens and levies against real property and other assets of the estate in Washington, D.C., and 15 other federal jurisdictions in Maryland, Pennsylvania, Virginia, Georgia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Connecticut, New York, Massachusetts, Ohio, New Jersey, Florida, California and Michigan. These had the effect of blocking any distribution of the estate pending settlement of the tax claims.

An IRS spokesman said the agency was preparing to prosecute Grace when he died at the age of 78. The government had a go at him in 1934, charging he paid $41 in tax on a $190,000 income, but he was as persuasive in court as in the pulpit and the case was thrown out.

PRESS TRUCKS BLASTED

. . . In Oregon Cities

Portland, Ore. (AP) — Dynamiters shattered 10 trucks used by struck Portland daily newspapers. Police said it was the work of someone experienced with explosives.

It was the first major violence on a wide scale since the newspapers were struck by the stereotypers union 84 days ago.

The City Council quickly voted a $1,000 reward for the dynamiters' arrest.

Four of the trucks were parked beside the warehouse of a contract carrier here and 6 were parked at nearby Oregon City.

They were empty. No one was hurt.

The blasts came in a series of sharp explosions that sent flaming gasoline high into the air and pushed shock waves over a wide area.

Police said at least two teams did it in a timed maneuver.

A third team, they hinted, may have handled another set of taped-together and fused dynamite sticks found beside a fence miles from either blast — but not too far from a third contract carrier for the newspapers, the Oregonian and the Oregon Journal.

Union spokesmen said they knew nothing of the dynamiting, said it injured their cause through threatening public support, and pledged support to the police in seeking the dynamiters.

Carpenter Backs $1 Least Wage

North Platte (AP)—Sen. Terry Carpenter of Scottsbluff said Monday night "if it is ever within my power, I will see that the minimum wage in Nebraska is $1 an hour."

Carpenter made the remark in one of a series of weekly television appearances over the state.

The senator branded as important things education and the welfare of people who cannot take care of themselves.

Once again he challenged the leadership of the Nebraska Republican Party to meet with him for an hour's questioning to prove their claims he is "radical and irresponsible."

Power Disputed By Gates

. . . Twining Backs Him

Washington (AP) — Secretary of Defense Thomas S. Gates Jr., Monday disputed as unrealistic his Strategic Air Commander's estimate that the Russians could demolish U.S. strikeback ability in 30 minutes with 300 missiles.

Gen. Twining

The estimate, made by Gen. Thomas S. Power in a recent speech, was thrown before Gates by Sen. Stuart Symington (D-Mo) while the defense chief was being questioned by a Senate Appropriations subcommittee about the new $39,335,000,000 military budget.

Symington, who contends the Eisenhower administration is letting the Russians pull steadily out front in missiles, wanted to know why the Pentagon was asking for only 15% of what Gen. Power declared would be needed to keep some of his long range nuclear bombers aloft and ready at all times.

Chiefs Disagree

Gates told Symington that Power's views were thoroughly considered by the Joint Chiefs of Staff and the chiefs do not agree with the SAC commander.

"I don't want to be disparaging of Gen. Power," the defense secretary said, "but we do believe his estimate of mathematical probability is unrealistic in relation to the facts."

Gates got firm backing from Gen. Nathan F. Twining, chairman of the Joint Chiefs and one-time Air Force chief of staff.

"I believe the United States is the strongest nation in the world and will remain the strongest nation in the world," Twining said.

7 U.S. MARINES LOSE STRIPES FOR SMUGGLING

London (UPI) — Seven U.S. embassy Marine guards have been fined, stripped of their rank and ordered home after conviction of smuggling cigarettes and whisky, it was revealed Monday night.

A U.S. embassy official said the 7 men — 4 sergeants and 3 corporals whom the official did not identify — claimed diplomatic immunity from British prosecution because of their status at the embassy.

But a secret U.S. Navy court martial convicted them of smuggling and inflicted the penalties, including reduction to private "for an extensive number of years," the spokesman said.

Soil Bank To Cut Down 663 Million Bu. Surplus

Washington (AP) — The Agriculture Department estimated Monday its soil bank will retire enough crop land this year to avoid production of about 663 million bushels of surplus grains.

In addition, it will cut down cotton production an estimated 490,000 bales, peanuts 132 million pounds, tobacco 23,300,000 pounds, and hay and pasture the equivalent of 7,600,000 tons. Most of these crops are available in surplus supplies also.

The soil bank program will hold about 28 million acres of crop land out of production under rental payments totaling about 335 million dollars.

The cost of the unproduced commodities to the government under price supports would be more than half a billion dollars.

The estimated normal production of the idled land included: corn, 183,200,000 bushels; wheat, 61,600,000 bushels; oats, 139,600,000 bushels; barley, 42½ million bushels; soybeans, 21,200,000 bushels; sorghum grain, 109 million bushels, and flaxseed, 4,400,000 bushels.

Additional Charges Filed Against Reed

Nebraska News

Companion Also Facing Breakin Count

Fremont (AP)—Charges were filed Monday against Robert Lee Reed, 29, and Albert Pinky Callaway of Fremont in connection with a breakin attempt Saturday.

Neither man was present. Reed, who was wounded in the left arm by officers who were waiting on a "hunch" when he and Callaway entered the VFW Club early Saturday, has been transferred to the State Penitentiary Hospital in Lincoln, and Callaway has been transferred to the Douglas County jail in Omaha.

Warden Maurice Sigler said Monday he had visited Reed and Reed did not appear to have been seriously wounded.

Dodge County Attorney Richard Kuhlman filed a charge of breaking and entering against Reed, an ex-convict who has been free on bond in connection with a $38,000 safe cracking job here.

Callaway was charged with breaking and entering and the possession of burglar tools.

The Douglas County attorney's office said Callaway was to be questioned about a breakin at the Johnson Hardware Store in Valley. Tools found in his possession fitted the description of tools taken in a breakin there Jan. 24.

Reed was charged with breaking and entering in connection with a breakin at the Kavich Furniture Store here last October. Some $35,000 in cash was found in safe deposit boxes belonging to Reed.

Reed was paroled from the State Penitentiary in November of 1958 after serving a 5-year term for burglary from Columbus.

Sight Program Main Topic At Lions Conference

Kearney (AP) — The sight conservation program emerged as the primary topic of the two-day Nebraska Lions midwinter conference here.

The final registration total was 200.

Ted Hunter of Des Moines, secretary-treasurer of the Iowa Lions Sight Conservation Foundation, told the Nebraska Lions that while the corneal transplant phase of the sight conservation program is perhaps the most dramatic it is "only a small part of the total program."

There are some 300,000 blind persons in the U.S., he said, of which 12,000 could be helped through transplantation of new corneas. But when eyes are taken from a donor after death, the entire eye is used—the cornea for transplanting and the rest for research.

There were other discussions of the Nebraska and Iowa eye bank programs and the leader dog program.

Randall Watkins of Laramie, Wyo., an International Lions director, was the banquet speaker.

Erving, Howard Bound Over On Murder Charges

Omaha (AP)—Jerry E. Erving and Milton Howard were bound over to District Court without bond Monday by Municipal Judge Frank Nimtz following 3 days of preliminary hearings on first degree murder charges.

They were accused of the Dec. 26 deaths of Edward Floyd Ellis and Mrs. Dorothy Elliott.

Donald Williams also has been charged with first degree murder in the same case.

Residents Of Blue Hill Honor Veteran Editor Vaughan, Wife

Lincoln Star Special

Blue Hill—The town of Blue Hill honored an editor, who, with his wife, have served the town 32 years.

Byron B. Vaughan, publisher of the Blue Hill Leader until Jan. 1 of this year, was the "victim" of a surprise party sponsored by the Blue Hill Commercial Club.

The Vaughans, who purchased tickets like everyone else, went to the Lutheran Church to attend an annual husband-wife dinner, little expecting that the event was in their honor. The program followed the television pattern of "This Is Your Life."

Sixteen out-of-town newspaper friends were back of an invisible curtain as the show progressed. As master of ceremonies, Bill Kort, Blue Hill banker, narrated the Vaughans' lives, the friends, one by one, appeared on the stage.

Mr. Vaughan was presented with a bronze engraved plaque for his service to the community by Dr. Frank Kamm. Mrs. Vaughan received a corsage from Dr. Kamm.

The Vaughans received scores of letters and wires from newspaper associates, former employees and friends, many of which were read at the dinner.

Thone, Young GOP Leaders Plan Meeting

Nebraska Young Republican leaders will meet in Lexington next weekend with State GOP Chairman Charles Thone to discuss the role of the Young GOP in the 1960 election.

Schmit said he will report on Young Republican activities for 1959.

Other business will include appointment of a resolutions committee and a constitution committee for the Young Republican State Convention and discussion and approval of final plans for the convention to be held in North Platte in May.

Work On Kimball Atlas Base May Start This Week

Cheyenne, Wyo. (AP) — Army Engineers reported Monday that equipment was being mobilized at the site of a new Atlas ICBM base southwest of Kimball.

Contractor Martin K. Eby said it probably will be Wednesday before the first ground is broken. Site preparation by earth moving equipment will be the first step in construction of the missile base.

The base, 4 miles southwest of Kimball, is one of a number which will ring Cheyenne.

Interstate Might Cost $1 Billion

Omaha (AP) — The master of the Nebraska State Grange said Monday night it's conceivable that the cost of the Interstate Highway in Nebraska could reach the billion dollar mark.

In remarks at a meeting of the Omaha Taxpayers Plan, G. A. Spidel of Lincoln criticized what he termed "the visionary, pie-in-the-sky, open-end type of budgeting that marks the Interstate."

He said the cost of the interstate in Nebraska was first estimated at $106 million but that this later was raised to $168 million. Recently, he said, some estimates were published for various segments of the Interstate in Nebraska which totaled up to $399 million.

"If plans for the Interstate and other highway building continue to elaborate and inflation continues its upward spiral, the cost of Nebraska's Interstate could mount to a billion dollars," Spidel said.

Girl Receives 10 Years For Baby's Death

Falls City (AP) — Sharon Wade, 19, Falls City, pleaded guilty in district court Monday to second degree murder and disposing of a dead human body in connection with the death of her newborn son last Jan. 11.

District Judge Virgil Falloon sentenced her to 10 years in the Women's Reformatory at York on the second degree murder conviction and one year on the conviction of disposing of the body, the sentences to run concurrently.

The infant's body was found in an alley near the girl's home Jan. 21, and Miss Wade subsequently gave County Attorney Henry F. Schepman a statement in which she related details of the unattended birth and death of the infant. She kept the body in the basement of the home from Jan. 11 until Jan. 21, the statement said.

Motor On Back Makes Skiing On Plains Possible

Columbus (AP) — Maurice Melcher has provided his own solution for skiing on the level Nebraska plains.

Melcher, an engineer, has developed a five horsepower motor and 30-inch propellor unit which he straps on his back. It will take him up grades of 15 degrees and whiz him along at 20 miles per hour on the level.

Melcher says the 18-pound unit is not tiring to wear and shows no particular vibration. The control unit is on a cord held in the skier's hand. When he falls, he releases the hand grip and the motor stops.

Now Melcher is experimenting with a 7½ horsepower unit to give him more zip.

DELAPLANE'S POSTCARD

"The problem is," said the lady with a frown, "you do not have that much money in your account."

"That is a might weak excuse," I said. "Here we have a relationship between the World's Largest Bank and the Worlds Smallest Customer. And you talk about lack of money.

The lady looked worried.

"It is against the rules to give you money unless you have some money here."

☆ ☆ ☆

That is the problem with banks—always worried about how the books will turn out at the end of the day.

"Have you looked in the mail?" I asked. "I mailed a check in yesterday. Maybe it slipped down behind a file cabinet. Or down in the couch cushions—I often find articles down behind couch cushions."

It was not as though I wanted to ease them out of some money. I really had mailed a deposit check. And now I wanted to take it out. That is a businesslike attitude.

I wanted to take it out and buy travelers checks. Right from the same bank.

"I will only use it for a little while. Just to walk to the next window and give it to the man who will take it right back into your bank. And then give me travelers checks."

I said she could come with me so I could not cheat. She could come with me and hold my hand. She could even bring the private policeman along. I would even let them handcuff me.

No. She was worried because the books did not show I had the same amount of money I had on my check.

☆ ☆ ☆

I am an old hand with the piggy. I do a certain commercial business with the World's Largest Bank — that is how they advertise with all those figures about "assets over umpty-ump millions." And then they quibble about riding me over for a couple of bills!

Then I do business with my village bank. It is called American Trust — a fine, upstanding name. I can see my Banker through the plateglass window. Balancing the books and keeping a tight hold on my money.

The World's Largest Bank is Bank of America. That is where I do things like putting money in and taking it right out. I think it infuriates them.

☆ ☆ ☆

What occurred to me is people walk into banks all over our town and hand in a folded note: "You are covered from all sides! Fill the sack with large bills!"

These are criminal people—a little daffy. Few professional heisters go around heisting banks because it is a very bad rap and the FBI makes life miserable until they collar you.

I mean if I were going to be criminal about this affair, I would have handed the lady a note:

"Have gun. Will travel. Where do I get the travelers checks?"

No, sir. I went in square as Jack the bear.

"If I go back to my office and get another check and deposit it, will you let me draw some money then?"

The lady said yes. She would do that, certainly.

And that is what I did. Went back and got a check for deposit. Went back and deposited it. Then I gave her the check for withdrawal. Got the money. Walked down and gave it back to the bank.

And they gave me some travelers checks. It takes a certain amount of brains.

Brooks Warns Rural Electric Assn's To 'Put Your Own House In Order'

Gov. Ralph Brooks warned the Nebraska Rural Electric Assn., Monday to "put your own house in order or someone will do it for you."

The governor spoke at the association's 24th annual meeting which has attracted nearly 300 delegates.

Brooks said it would be "too bad for everyone" if someone else has to put public power's house right for it.

State Agency

The governor has in the past suggested that a state power agency might be the result of continued wrangling and court litigation among the more than 40 power agencies in Nebraska.

"Quit quarreling," Brooks told REA delegates.

The governor noted that REA success has been closely connected with the welfare of the state.

Face Debacle

But the REA, Brooks warned, is "faced with economic debacle in Nebraska" through the loss over the past 10 years of 6,000 farms and a cut in the last year alone of 1,000 rural power connections.

Ralph Foreman of Washington, D.C., deputy administrator of REA, warned Nebraska agencies to prepare for continued "explosive growth" in America.

"Your systems are going to have to get ready for it and keep up with it," Foreman said.

Plan Already

"You must plan your physical plant to handle 3 to 6 times your current load. You must figure your financial requirements at least 10 years in advance.

"You must develop a continuing program of community relationships and member relations. You cannot let the future overwhelm you."

Jack Hart, editorial page editor of The Lincoln Journal, suggested that Nebraska public power agencies concentrate more on "the collective good" rather than their own limited areas.

"The public," he said, "is doubting increasingly that it is wise to have so many agencies." Fewer districts, more efficiency and a less limited concern might be the result, Hart noted.

United Shows Net Earnings Of $10 Million

United Air Lines reported a net earnings and gain figure of $13,799,000 in 1959, making it the 3rd best year in the company's history.

Net earnings were $10,236,000 and aircraft sales added $3,563,000 in gains during the year. This is equivalent to $3.66 on each share outstanding.

Operating revenues were $330,156,000, a 3% increase over 1958, and operating expenses were $308,327,000, a 7.7% rise attributed mainly to transition to jet operations.

Passenger traffic was slightly below 1958 when United traffic was inflated because of strikes sustained by its major competitors.

Revenue passenger miles for the year totaled 5,160,757,000, one per cent under 1958, and 7,521,000 passengers were carried by United in 1959, an increase of 3%.

Freight ton miles increased 11%; mail ton miles, 1%, and express ton miles, 9%.

Orme Urges Men, Women To Cooperate

Men and women must cooperate and work together in their achievements for a successful tomorrow, State Sen. Fern Hubbard Orme told women attending the 24th annual Nebraska Rural Electric Assn. convention at the Lincoln Hotel Monday.

In discussing "Tomorrow's Challenge for Women Today," Mrs. Orme pointed out that women shouldn't compete with men but men and women should co-operate.

"We must give both sexes an equal opportunity to realize their potentialities," she said.

She emphasized that men are not more capable than women, but women are more interested in human relationships, than men.

In quoting Dr. Frank Court, pastor of St. Paul Methodist Church, Mrs. Orme said, "'God made us what we are but what we do with what we are is our gift to God.'"

Bomb Scare Delays Plane

Amarillo, Tex. (UPI)—A Trans-World Airlines Constellation, en route from Phoenix, Ariz. to Chicago with 38 persons on board, made an emergency landing at Amarillo Monday because of a radioed report that a bomb was on board.

Three demolition experts from Amarillo Air Force Base and Sheriff Paul Gaither searched the plane and baggage without finding any explosives.

Woman Awarded $50,000 Alimony

A Lincoln woman was awarded a $50,000 lump sum alimony payment Monday in a Lancaster District Court divorce case.

Judge Polk also ordered Ferguson to pay the law firm of Stewart, Stewart and Calkins a $10,000 fee for their services in representing Mrs. Ferguson. She also had her former name of Louise H. Grainger restored.

Ferguson is president of the investment company which bears his name and also is president of the Yankee Hill Brick Manufacturing Co. He testified at the 3-day divorce trial that he owned property valued at $1¼ million.

SPICY QUESTION

Somebody wrote recently to ask how salt and pepper shakers should be placed on a company table. I checked and found a set belongs at each end of the table. If you use small "individual" sizes, put a set between each pair of guests.

VALENTINE THOUGHT

I know a hostess who collects candy hearts, tiny gum drops and doves from the dime store, candy shop or supermarket. Then she frosts doughnuts, wreaths them with the pretty trims before the frosting sets. Makes party fare so pretty, I've watched guests carry their doughnuts home to keep!

DOUBLING UP

No two ways about it — a "one-bathroom house" and a good-sized family can add up to complications! One way to combine forces: Hang two shower curtains instead of one. (Especially nice: an opaque curtain in color, behind one of printed "see-through" plastic.) Now one person can shower while another shaves or brushes his teeth . . . and both enjoy a bit of privacy!

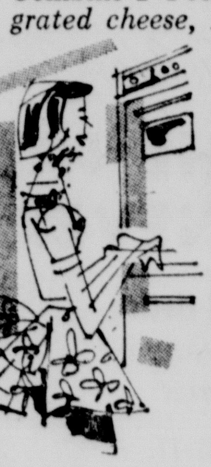
INSTANT BATHING!

Remember when Saturday night was "Bath Night"? That was the only time Mother could spare hot water from her family chores! Today most of us can bathe whenever we like . . . thanks to automatic gas water heaters, that keep a happy tankful always on tap. But families do outgrow their water tanks, as more babies arrive. Has this happened at your house? Time to see your local gas company or plumber dealer. They have gas water heaters to fit your family and your budget!

PUT THIS ON RECORD

Shelves mounted inside a door will hold record albums, if you attach expanding curtain rods about eight inches above the shelf itself. (Though this can be done inside to keep the albums from view . . . why hide them? They'd make a nice door-front display in a recreation or family room.)

CHEESE 'N' MACARONI LOAF



A Minnesota reader, Mrs. Lawrence Johnson, reminds us cheese dishes supply lots of protein: Cook ¾ cup macaroni pieces till tender; cool. Scald 1 cup milk. While it cools, beat 3 eggs till foamy. Stir in milk. Combine 2 Tbsp. soft butter, 1 cup grated cheese, 1 chopped pimiento, 1 cup soft bread crumbs, 1 tsp. grated onion with the macaroni, eggs and milk. Put into a greased 1-lb. bread pan, set in a pan of hot water, and bake one hour at 350 degrees. P.S. One can of condensed cream of mushroom soup, heated with ½ cup milk, makes a nice topper sauce.

LAST WORD: LAST-MINUTE GIFTS

Giving a travel present to a lucky friend headed for cruise-land? Don't wait till she's packed her suitcases! Send it a week ahead. She'll appreciate your gift and thoughtfulness all the more!

MEMO FROM MINNEAPOLIS

Bet you didn't know residents of Minneapolis use enough natural gas, on an average January day, to keep one burner of a modern gas range lighted for 2,635 years! The natural gas used in our Northern Plains states often travels from as far away as Texas . . . coming hundreds of miles to warm your home and cook your dinner! Blustery Old Man Winter never prevents Northern Natural Gas Company from piping this warm friend to your community . . . so your local gas company can bring it to you.

Dear Abby--

Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: I am a 46-year-old bachelor who is in love with a 27-year-old woman with two children. Her divorce (for which I am paying) is pending.

I bought her a new car and spent over $1,000 for clothes for her and her children. She says she'll marry me when she's free, but in the meantime I don't see much of her. She saves every Saturday night for me, but every Tuesday she dates her old boyfriend (she says she's trying to let him down easy). On Wednesdays she goes out with her boss. (She says her bonus depends on this.) Thursday nights she "free-lances" with the girls. Sundays she reserves for her husband because he likes to see the kids, but he stays all night against her lawyer's orders. My friends say I am being taken for a ride. Am I? DOUG

DEAR DOUG: You are not only "being taken for a ride"—you'll be lucky if you don't get hurt in the traffic.

☆ ☆ ☆

DEAR ABBY: I am a sophomore girl. I'm not especially beautiful, but I'm not exactly ugly either. Let's say I am about average.

Abby, if I had my wish, I would wish that I could turn into a boy every time there was a school dance. I would go around and ask all the broken-hearted girls sitting on the sidelines to dance.

"ON THE SIDELINES"

☆ ☆ ☆

DEAR ABBY: I have a friend who refuses to leave her house because she is afraid her 18-year-old daughter might eat something.

This daughter looked like a baby elephant a year ago. Her mother took her to a doctor who put her on a strict diet. The girl lost about sixty pounds, but she still isn't skinny.

My friend says every time she leaves her daughter alone she finds empty cans of spaghetti and pork and beans, and she can't trust her.

We have had many arguments over this because I say the mother can't be a policeman all her life.

GOOD FRIEND

DEAR FRIEND: You are right. Although overweight is a physical problem, it usually has its roots in compulsive eating which is an emotional one. Standing guard 24 hours a day will not help. The girl needs to see a psychiatrist.

☆ ☆ ☆

DEAR ABBY: For my 12th birthday last year I was given a bike as my one and only present from my mother and father. I had an accident on it and haven't ridden it since. My father wants to sell it.

I think I should get the money from it as it was my bike. I wouldn't spend it foolishly. Just on clothes. Please answer soon. EDNA

DEAR EDNA: I think the money should be put in the bank — in your name — and you should be able to spend it with the approval of your parents.

The bidding:

Opening lead — six of spades.

Part of the skill in handling the dummy consists of arranging the play so that the defenders are given the maximum opportunity for error. A trick gained because of a defensive mistake is just as valuable as one earned with a high card.

Declarer pulled a neat trick to steal this hand played in a rubber bridge game. The three heart bid was made in an effort to reach three notrump, but North, with no spade stopper, refused the invitation.

East cashed the A-K of spades and, knowing from the lead that declarer had no more spades, shifted to the king of hearts. This was a wise decision, since South could have made the rest of the tricks on a squeeze if there had been no heart shift.

Declarer took the ace, led the nine of clubs to the queen, and ruffed a spade. He had concocted a scheme to try to do East out of his heart trick, from which there appeared to be no escape.

South then drew four rounds of trumps, discarding a heart from dummy, cashed the king of clubs on which he played the five from dummy, and led the eight to the ace. This brought about the following two-card position:

North
♠ 8
♣ 3

West
♥ 8 7

East
♠ 10
♥ Q

South
♥ J
♣ 2

The three of clubs was led from dummy. East had to make a discard. He knew from the drop of West's ten that declarer had the missing club, but he hadn't followed the play of the cards closely enough to know the size of the club South had left.

So, thinking that South would have to win the club in his own hand, East discarded the spade and sat back and waited to cash his heart trick.

He's still waiting.

Was Hostess

Mrs. Lester Thompson was hostess to the members of the Lookout Extension Club on Thursday afternoon when the lesson on fabric design and selection was given by Mrs. Russell Parrot and Mrs. Herbert C. Everett.

Food And Fashion

Where the female form's concerned, Simon Wolf of New York City knows a good measure. For 55 years, Wolfe's company has been making the assorted model forms on which designers put together clothes to cover all types—and sizes—of womanly shapes.

His studio is filled with armless, legless, headless forms—some dating from 1905. Some of the forms are of famous women whose dressmakers have ordered body casts of their high-paying clients.

To show what fashion's done to the female silhouette over the years, Wolf hauls out three forms—one from 1905, one from 1921 and one from 1959.

The 1921 one looks anything but female. The torso that year, according to Wolfe's documentary proof, featured a flat chest. The vital statistics for that torso: 35½, 29 and an ample 39 in the hips.

A view of the 1905 form is a study in contrast. "Now there was a woman," said Wolf.

Her waist was cinched with a laced corset. The tight lacing displaced waist tissue, fat and organs, shoving them into the rib cage. This gave the chest a robust—but definitely feminine—look.

Hips—padded, if necessary—were accentuated. The vital statistics give some idea of the "womanly look"—36½, 24, and a very ample 42½ in the hips.

The contemporary woman, preserved for history by Wolf's torso makers, has an uplifted, sharply accented bosom. She has slimmed the hips. The dimensions: 37, 27½, and 38½.

Except for the slimmer hips, the contemporary woman isn't much different from the Gibson girl figure of the early 1900's, Wolf figures.

Quantitatively, the three forms look like they could be squeezed into the same size. But the first, 1905, wore what was called a size 34. The second, 1921, wore a 12; the third, 1959, wore a good round 16.

Through the years, says Wolf, the only consistent thing about the sizing situation has been the inconsistency in standardizing sizes.

Wolf and other fashion stitchers explain, for example, that if your grandmother wore a size 16 and you wear a 14, it doesn't necessarily follow that you are smaller.

Some ready to wear 12's today, for example, are the same — inch for inch — as hand-made dresses stitched from a pattern labeled size 14.

Back in 1910, Wolf said, a size 16 had a 29 inch waist. Today, a size 16 has either a 26 or a 28 inch waist—all depending on the way a particular maker of dresses figures.

To add to the confusion, there are regulars, shorts, talls, petites, dimunitives, and half-sizes.

KITCHEN PIN-UP

Tuna Roll-up . . . Pimiento and parsley add color to the filling and, for a subtle tartness, there's lemon juice in the biscuit roll. Slice to serve.

Tuna Roll-Up

2 7-ounce cans tuna fish
½ teaspoon salt
¼ teaspoon pepper
1 pimiento, chopped
2 tablespoons minced onion
3 tablespoons minced parsley
1 teaspoon grated lemon rind
½ cup water
2 cups biscuit mix
1 egg yolk
2 tablespoons milk

Drain tuna: flake with fork. Add salt, pepper, pimiento, onion, parsley and lemon rind; mix well. Combine lemon juice and water. Add to biscuit mix and stir vigirously with fork to combine. Roll into 8 by 13-inch rectangle on lightly floured board. Spread with tuna mixture. Roll as for jelly roll. Dampen outside edge with egg yolk beaten with milk; press to seal. Lay seam side down in floured shallow baking pan. Brush top and sides with remaining egg mixture. Bake at 400 degrees 35 to 40 minutes. Makes 6 servings.

Town Talk

—This is "me-and-my-shadow" day for one Monsieur Groundhog — We trust his shadow will elude him, but it is a bit early to make a prediction.

It isn't too early, however, to tell you that there are two good parties planned for the week end—and both are dancing clubs.

The first one is the "Beatnik" party on Friday evening when the members of the Mr. and Mrs. Dancing Club dine and dance at Hotel Lincoln.

Planning the party details is a committee composed of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Blazek, Mr. and Mrs. Al Heuppelheuser, Dr. and Mrs. Walter Charnike, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ebneter and Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Kreiner.

A number of guest couples has been invited to the dinner dance, and the group includes Mr. and Mrs. Robert Budde, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Fiene, Mr. and Mrs. Wood Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Cunningham, Capt. and Mrs. John Mulkey, Mr. and Mrs. James Wickstrom, Mr. and Mrs. Newman Buckley, Mr. and Mrs. Don Hamann, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Reams, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Carter, Mr. and Mrs. Angelo Manzitto, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kidder, Mr. and Mrs. Yank Banowetz and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Wagey.

* * *

—No dancing shoes this evening for the members of the Fifty Fifty Club—This is the non-dancing evening when, instead of tripping the light fantastic, the members meet at the University club for dinner and an evening devoted to bridge—or canasta.

Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Fieselman and Dr. and Mrs. Hubert Capek are in charge of the arrangements.

* * *

—Monday morning was take-off time for Mrs. T. M. Welton, her son, Mark, and daughter, Lindsey, who arrived from New York a week ago for a brief visit with Mrs. Welton's mother, Mrs. F. H. Deurmeyer. Mrs. Welton and the children, however, left Lincoln for San Francisco where they will join Mr. Welton and where the family will reside.

Guests In Lincoln

Guests in Lincoln are Mrs. Robert Dawson and her son, Jimmy Elliot, who with Mr. Dawson arrived last week to visit their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Hemphill and Mrs. R. A. Dawson, before going to Puerto Rico to reside.

The Dawsons, who have been residing at Watertown, N.Y., are graduates of the University of Nebraska. Mrs. Dawson will be remembered as the former Nancy Hemphill, a member of Pi Beta Phi at the university.

Garland 3rd On D Charts

. . . TWO LEADERS PRESSED

By Al Beebe

Outstanding team performances the past week wreaked havoc with the two lower class ratings.

For instance, little Garland — though unbeaten — was not given much chance in the Seward County tournament against such powerful Class C schools as Milford and Seward Concordia (ranked 10th).

Clubs Both Foes

But Garland clubbed Milford, 60-40, then stunned Concordia, 60-46. The wins shot Garland to 3rd place in Class D rankings, behind Indianola and Axtell.

The two leaders, though hanging on, are severely pressed. Big Springs, unbeaten within the state, came through with a surprising triumph in the South Platte Valley tourney, which included strong B clubs Grant and Chappell.

Big Springs, 15-1 for the year, ranks 4th.

Idle Lawrence dropped a couple notches to 5th, and 6th is Palisade, back into the list after holding Indianola to a 2-point victory in the Southern Frontier.

Unbeatens Dawson-Verdon and Venango are next in the D ratings, and on the 9th spot is Chester, which upset Davenport in the Little Blue.

Bancroft Quint Drops

Chester also beat Hardy in that tourney, thus avenging 2 of 3 losses (the other is to Lawrence).

Bancroft dropped from 5th to 10th when it failed to win the Logan Valley tourney, although placing second.

Class C rankings are also juggled with a new leader for the first time this year. Morrill lost its 3rd game, this time to Class B Bridgeport, and slipped to 3rd.

Moving up is Elkhorn, beaten only by undefeated Ralston, a rated B power. Elkhorn advance by nipping Arlington, 43-42, last week, with Arlington moving to second.

Crawford Joins Ranks

Crawford, which has beaten Gordon and Rushville recently to avenge early losses, is a newcomer to the C list, grabbing 9th. Gibbon also returns to the roster, replacing Concordia on the No. 10 slot.

Tournaments are interesting in the C list this week. Elkhorn and Arlington are entered in the Eastern Nebraska at Papillion, while Harvard and Hastings St. Cecilia go in the Henderson Invitational.

SOONERS LOSE THREE MATMEN

Norman, Okla. (AP)—The University of Oklahoma Monday lost 3 of its wrestlers, including a defending Big 8 Conference champion, because of scholastic ineligibility.

Assistant Sooner mat coach Port Robertson, who heads the OU athletic guidance counseling program, said DuWayne Miller, Jay Gregg and Von Henry had been declared ineligible.

Miller, wrestling this year at 130 pounds, was Big 8 champion at 123 pounds last year. He has won 8 and lost one match this year.

'O' Needs 5½ Minutes To Crack Point Mark

Cincinnati (AP)— All-America Oscar Robertson needed only 5½ minutes and 4 point to crack 3-year scoring mark for major college basketball players Monday night.

Robinson, the nation's leading scorer with top-rated Cincinnati, started the contest against Drake needing only the 4 points to break the record of 2,538 points left by Frank Selvy through 78 varsiy games with Furman.

Teammate Paul Hogue scored Cincinnatis' first 9 points. Then Robertson drove in twice for two lay-up baskets that broke the record and gave Cincinnati an early 13-6 lead.

The fieldhouse announcer cut in with a report of the record and a standing room only crowd erupted in a deafening roar of approval.

At halftime Cincinnati Coach George Smith walked onto the floor and gave Oscar the basketball used to break the record.

Smith called Robertson, "the greatest basketball player in the world," and said, "I'm proud of Oscar both as a great basketball player and a fine student."

Robertson wound up with 36 points as Cincy rolled 96-61.

Second-Half Spree Snaps Loss String

By Bob McCoy

Nebraska finally got to be the "good guys" through an entire basketball game Monday night and responded with a 64-59 triumph over Missouri in a Coliseum bone-crusher.

Victory was the first in 6 Big 8 Conference games for the Cornhuskers, who now share the league basement with their favorite playmate—Missouri.

The Tigers, "bad guys" in spectacular from Monday night, were the last Husker victims — in the Big 8 tourney at Kansas City way back in December of 1959.

Tiger Growls Scarce

Missouri growled few times at the Huskers in the point department again this time, but kept things lively under the boards and in the out-court scrambling.

The Huskers fought fire with fire, sending Al Buuck and Bob Harry into the rebound battle and using Herschell Turner, Jim Kowalke and Al Roots to scramble out front.

Shooting at a hot 45.8 per cent, Nebraska maintained a lead most of the way and sewed it up with a pair of second half spurts.

First spree came with a 39-39 tie and 15 minutes left.

Harry Spurs Spree

Harry started it off with a drive in, then Turner scored a free throw and a lay in after a full-court pass from Roots.

Kowalke's nifty under-the-basket maneuver made it 46-39 and Roots took a behind-the-back feed from Turner to score a 3-pointer.

With 13 minutes to go, the Tigers were crushed save some last-ditch clawing.

Mizzou pulled up 47-51 when Charles Henke, who had the bucket zeroed in all the way, forced Harry's 5th foul and pocketed a free throw 8 minutes from the end.

But Buuck — Nebraska's brightest star of the evening — plunked two charities, Kowalke clicked on a fade-away jumper and Turner went all the way with a stolen pass to make it 57-47 and safe one minute later.

Henke tossed in 3 more fielders before the finish to keep Jerry Bush's warriors honest, but the gifters helped the brawling Tigers little.

Henke finished with 29 points while Al Abrams added 12 and plucked 14 rebounds for Missouri. Joe Scott, the Tigers' reckless gunner who brought an 18.6 average into the game, got only 9 points.

Turner paced Nebraska scoring with 19 while Buuck added 13 and Kowalke 10 all in the second half. Buuck's 15 rebounds, 10 by Turner and 7 by Harry helped salt away the win.

Tangles Spice Show

Two brief rounds of tangling, always expected when Missouri comes to town, spiced action.

Scott and Harry mixed in the first half, which saw the Huskers etch a 31-30 lead. Mizzou's Charles Grebing and NU's Roots joined the pair in a second-half scramble.

The contest was Nebraska's last home game until Feb. 13. The Huskers, now 5-12 for the season, visit Oklahoma State Saturday and play at Oklahoma next Monday before returning to the Coliseum against Iowa State.

Huskers Lose Again

The same day the Nebraska basketball team blew a 14-point lead and absorbed its 5th straight conference loss, the school also lost the services of a fine coach—Don Strasheim.

"Stras" has elected to leave the coaching ranks and enter private business.

Strasheim

Schmakel

It was the second important coaching loss the Husker football team endured in January, Frosh Coach Warren Schmakel leaving for a job at Rutgers.

While it's unlikely that the NU football program will collapse because one or two key persons depart, there's no question that a program suffers when men the caliber of Strasheim and Schmakel are lost.

Both are fine gentlemen and excellent coaches. "Stras," who through hard work and an intense desire to play football, rose from an obscure sophomore fullback to an aggressive All Conference lineman as a senior—not motivated by a grant-in-aid, by the way.

He coached the same way. It was Strasheim—one of the players' top favorites—who tried to inject a fighting, hustling spirit in practice and in games.

Schmakel's work with the NU freshman was impressive. Not only he did win games, he also supplied inspiration, counseling and full ration of fundamentals in helping boys prepare for varsity careers.

No question about it—Strasheim and Schmakel will be missed. And, in addition to wishing them well in their new fields, the hope is that the replacements will be able to do as much for the Cornhusker football program as their predecessors.

Odds 'N Ends

Bennie Dillard, ex-NU footballer who dropped midway through the 1957 season, is back on campus awaiting his transcript from a California junior college. He'd be eligible for the 1960 track season right away, but it would cost him a year of eligibility. So he probably will wait until next fall in order to get two full years of duty . . . Tony Sharpe may see his freshman basketball team won-loss record suffer this year. iWth 4 games coming up, he has only 6 players on the firing line—grades and injuries taking a heavy toll of the others . . . John Cronley of the OC Daily Oklahoman continues the battle in behalf of Bud Wilkinson and OU. His latest: "(Bill) Jennings landed in the middle of the stew by threatening to turn over to the NCAA a letter from a Texas recruiting friend of the Sooners." John also takes on the "northern press" who "have erected a defense of sorts for Bill Jennings in his connection with Oklahoma's probation by the NCAA." This corner has offered no defense for Bill. The record shows he involved himself to a degree which invited trouble, and also that he has admitted involvement. "Northern writers," rather than defending Bill, are only questioning the ridiculous stand by "Oklahoma writers" that Jennings was the sole bogey-man and that Wilkinson was "victimized" by his aide. Jennings certainly has not received anything resembling the whitewash that Coach Wilkinson has received in Oklahoma. Will it ever end?

Two Barred From Rings

New York (AP)—New York's state athletic commission has barred Carmen Basolio's co-managers—Johnny DeJohn and Joe Netro—for life from its rings and fined Syracuse matchmaker-promoter Norman Rothschild $2,000 for making payments to an undercover (unlicensed) manager.

All 3 admitted they made payments to Gabe Genovese, convicted last June of being undercover manager of lightweight Ludwig Lightburn of British Honduras.

It is illegal for an uncensed person to participate in a boxing show in New York. It's also illegal for a licensee to deal with unlicensed persons in making matches.

Contract Made Void

The commission declared Basilio's contract with DeJohn and Netro null void and ordered the 32-year-old former welterweight and middleweight champion not to make any further payments to them.

The action against the two managers virtually bars them from boxing in most other states as well. New York and the National Boxing Assn. often recognize each other's penalties.

"I will be my own manager," said Basilio at his Canastota, N.Y. home when advised of the commission's decision. "We were together 8 years, and I can only say I would never want anyone else to handle my affairs.

"Let me add that Joe and Johnny never did a single thing to hurt me. They were honest and above board in all dealings, and I have only the highest praise for their abilities."

Promoter Not Arguing

DeJohn, of Syracuse, and Netro, of Ithaca, could not be reached immediately for comment.

Rothschild in Syracuse said he accepted the commission's ruling without argument.

"After all, their decision was reached after careful study of ali evidence, and I do not feel I should keep the matter open with violent protests," he said.

The commission fined Rothschild $1,000 as matchmaker and the arena boxing club he heads $1,000. In addition the commission, "formally rebuked and reprimanded" Rothschild and warned that any further infractions would result in license revocations.

Rothschild admitted making a $10,000 payment to Genovese for the latter's assistance in the promotion of the Basilio-Johnny Saxton welterweight title fight at Syracuse Sept. 12, 1956.

Colorado Roars By Cyclones

. . . By 70-55

Ames, Ia. (AP) — Colorado moved into second place in the Big 8 by stopping an Iowa State rally in the second half for a 70-55 victory Monday night.

The Cyclones, down 36-26 at the half, surged within two points at 45-47 with 12 minutes left.

But Roger Voss and Wilky Gilmore led Colorado to a 58-50 advantage in the next 4 minutes, and Iowa State couldn't catch up.

Victory was Colorado's 4th against two losses in conference play and moved them up from a tie for 3rd. The loss gave Iowa State a 4-3 record.

Gilmore led Colorado with 18 points. Vinnie Brewer was tops for Iowa State with 18.

Bradley and California hold second and 3rd after mid-year examinations limited activity of most leading teams.

Dr. X, Jap Vie Tonight At Pershing

The long-awaited challenge grudge match between Doctor X, the hooded-mystery man of the pro grapple circuit, and Kinji Shibuya, who specializes in Pearl Harbor tactics, will unfold tonight at Pershing Auditorium.

Promoter Jack Pesek's rassle show commences at 8:30 p.m., with Jerry Christiy tangling with Roberto Rico in a 20-minute affair.

As a special highlight tonight, Pesek has inked a pair of lovely ladies—Lorraine Johnson and Barbara Baker—for a one-fall, 30-minute hair pulling contest.

The Doctor X-Shibuya donnybrook is a rematch from the mid-January show which saw X unable to reach Lincoln because of the weather. At that time some 4,000 fans turned out.

The hooded meanie has posted a $500 guarantee that he'll be at Pershing tonight, according to Pesek.

In the semi-final match, goose-stepping Otto Von Krupp will take on local favorite Doug Gilbert, the body-beautiful exponent who is gaining ring stature as the Midlands' answer to New York's Argentine Rocca.

Foss, CFL Pledge Honoring Of Pacts

Sioux Falls, S.D. (AP)—Commissioners of the American and Canadian football leagues agreed to honor each other's contracts in talks Monday.

"Contracts will be honored to the limit," commissioners Joe Foss of the AFL and G. Sydney Walter of the CFL said.

Foss said he hoped to meet with new National Football League Commissioner Pete Rozelle, "as soon as Pete gets his feet under his desk."

Foss said he doubted there would be any "bid spiralling" now that there were 3 leagues competing for American players.

He said he is personally processing all player contracts granted by the American Football League clubs and feels, "acutely aware of what's going on."

Walter said he didn't think the new league would have too much effect on the Canadian league's chances of continuing to get good American players.

"It puts us back where we were about 4 years ago when we had the eastern and western divisions of our own conference competing against each other," he said.

Foss said the new league had signed 360 new players to date and should have little trouble in getting 8 teams ready for action by next fall.

The former South Dakota governor said he feels the AFL is entitled to former Louisiana State halfback Billy Cannon and, "we'll go the limit to get him."

Pressures Disparage Cage Boss

Bluefield, W.Va. (AP)—West Virginia Basketball Coach Fred Schaus said Monday, the pressures of fans eventually will destroy intercollegiate athletics unless something is done to stop them.

He said the push to win at all costs has filtered down to the scholastic level and is unhealthy, not only for the game and the coaches but also for the players who come to school first to get an education.

"We've found it's usually the man who has lost 5 dollars on a game who does the most screaming," Schaus stated.

Schaus brought his basketball Mountaineers here for a Southern Conference engagement with VMI. He spoke to a luncheon audience composed of the Bluefield Lions, Kiwanis and athletic boosters clubs.

Schaus had nothing but praise for stars of teams which have beaten his 5th-ranked Mountaineers — Jeff Cohen of William and Mary and Darrell Imhoff of California.

"Cohen and Imhoff are two of the finest players in the country today," Schaus said, "although I don't want to take anything from Chris Smith over at VPI who likewise is tremendous."

Schaus put West Virginia's All-America Jerry West, who set a personal scoring mark for the season with 42 points in the W&M loss, in a class by himself.

"He's the heart and soul of our team," the young coach stated.

Top Class A Contests Dot Prep Lineup

A handful of top games are sprinkled among tonight's hefty prep schedule, including some involving Class A clubs.

Creighton Prep is at Omaha Benson in an Inter-City League clash. Plattsmouth at Beatrice is a Twin Rivers contest, while Auburn is at Falls City.

There will be 18 players entered in the three-day tournament.

Harry Foth of Ord was named president of the state association; Ernest Clay of Holdrege was named vice-president and Lloyd Mills of Lincoln, defending state champion, was named secretary-treasurer.

Ex-Columbus Cage Ace Is Headed For Midland

Laramie, Wyo. (UPI) — Former Columbus, Neb. High School basketball star LeRoy Hulsebus has decided to leave Wyoming and enroll at Midland College.

Wyoming Basketball Coach Bill Strannigan Monday said the 6-7 pivot man told him he was leaving because he did not think he could make the team next year.

"Hulsebus wants to play at least one more full year of college basketball and feels he will have very little chance to see much action here next season," Strannigan said.

Hulsebus must enroll at Midland for the spring semester in order to be eligible for basketball next year.

As a junior this year, Hulsebus scored 40 points in 13 games for Wyoming.

In Fremont, Midland Coach My Draemel confirmed that Hulsebus had talked with him via telephone last week.

"We hope the rumor's true," Draemel said. "We could use him."

TURLEY SIGNS WITH YANKEES

New York (AP)—Bob Turley Monday signed his 1960 contract with the New York Yankees for a reported $30,000.

Neither Turley nor the club divulged the exact figure, but Turley—bitter a week ago when he said he was asked to take a 24 per cent cut—stated: "I am very happy with the terms."

Turley, a right-hander, made $32,000 last year after a 21-7 record in 1958. Last year he dropped to 8-11.

Oklahoma's Governor Can't Help OU Plight

Oklahoma City (AP)—After a conference with football coach Bud Wilkinson, Gov. J. Howard Edmondson said there is apparently nothing he can do to help the University of Oklahoma get back in good graces with the NCAA.

Wilkinson agreed.

"There have not been any developments and I don't think there can be," the coach said.

The University recently was given an indefinite football probation by the NCAA because of a 1953-1954 recruiting fund handled by Oklahoma City accountant Arthur Wood.

Wood has refused to open his books to the NCAA.

Wilkinson and other University officials said they were not aware of the help being given prospective football players at the time. The money was spent for transportation to the OU campus at Norman.

Edmondson had expressed dissatisfaction in the punishment dealt out and indicated he would like to help straighten out the matter.

LA Twin Bill Title Fights Will Set New State Mark

Los Angeles (AP) — The doubleheader championship fight card outdoors at Memorial Coliseum Thursday is a cinch to set a California gate record.

A crowd of perhaps 40,000 is expected for the rematch between world bantamweight champion Jose Becerra and France's Alphonse Halimi and the junior welterweight title fight pitting champion Carlos Ortiz of New York against unbeaten Battling Torres.

Advance Of $200,000

Carmen Basilio and Art Aragon set the present California record of $236,521 in their 1958 battle outdoors at Wrigley Field.

Promoter Cal Eaton reports an advance sale of $200,000 in the till. Eaton said he wouldn't be surprised if $200,000 more rolls in as the big push starts from Mexico.

Fight fans from south of the border—always rabid backers of their fighting countrymen — are chartering busses, trains and planes to see Becerra try and hold on to his 118-pound title and Torres try to win the 140-pound crown for Mexico.

The mysterious men who set the odds forecast that the Latin fight fans will be only half satisfied on the return trip to Mexico.

Becerra, Ortiz Liked

Becerra is a 10-7 favorite to retain the bantam crown he slugged from the head of Halimi last July 8 in Los Angeles. Ortiz is 10-9 to outfox the hardsocking, 18-year-old Torres.

Becerra has been impressive in training, appearing stronger and more confident than when he socked the proud little Frenchman into submission in the 8th round of their July battle.

Halimi, during sparring sessions, has exhibited a frightening weakness for right hands — Becerra's best shot.

Young Torres—although still not a polished boxer—is a natural puncher, always swinging with both feet planted firmly. He has stopped 24 opponents in 31 pro fights, including rough New Yorker Johnny Busso.

Minnie's Unhappy With Chisox Offer

Chicago (AP) — Outfielder Minnie Minoso has rejected a 1960 contract offer made by the Chicago White Sox.

The Cuban flash, obtained from Cleveland in a trade involving infielder-outfielder Bubba Phillips and catcher John Romano, said, "They offered me the same salary I had the last time I played with them."

That was before the Sox traded Minoso to Cleveland in a deal which brought them pitcher Early Wynn and outfielder Al Smith.

Neither President Bill Veeck nor Executive Vice President Chuck Comiskey was particularly concerned that Minoso was dissatisfied.

"We offered him what I think is a very fair contract," said Veeck.

"Minnie just likes to make a production out of signing," said Comiskey. "He just wants to keep his name in print and is building up to opening day when he'll expect big 'Minnie Comes Home' headlines."

Said Minoso: "They should remember my 1959 record. I hit .302, drove in almost 100 runs (92 to be exact) and hit 21 home runs.

Estonia Native Ardon Cage Star At Tulane

New Orleans (AP) — The nearest thing to a basketball in Estonia is an oversized squash, but the way Jack Ardon plays the game for Tulane, you might think he's been at it all his life.

Ardon, a 6-9 sophomore now ranked among the leading scorers and rebounders in the Southeastern Conference, recalls litttle of his early youth in his native Estonia.

When Russia began gulping the smaller nations of northern Europe, the Ardons—Jack was only 5 at the time—pulled stakes and moved to Germany. The family found its way to Lakewood, N.J. in 1950.

Before trying for his 8th grade team, Ardon had never played basketball.

Four years later, he had scored 2,152 points, a New Jersey prep record. The 700 points he accumulated in his senior year was another state record.

As a Tulane freshman, he averaged more than 20 points per game. As a soph, he leads the SEC in rebounds and has a 16-point average.

Coach Cliff Wells thinks Ardon will make an indelible impression on the conference in the next two years.

Wells is teaching his 200-pound pivotman a few refinements and indicated Ardon is certain to improve.

Any more improvement and it may be tough for Tulane's foes next winter.

German Question To Figure In Kremlin Ag Talks

Moscow (AP)—A summit meeting of Communist Party chiefs opens in Moscow Tuesday to discuss agricultural problems. But the Soviet-West German dispute will form a backdrop.

A letter sent by Chancellor Konrad Adenauer to Premier Khrushchev last month—made public in Bonn Monday—called on Khrushchev to live up to his words of peace by giving the German people "self-determination" in working out unification of West Germany and Communist East Germany.

This, said Adenauer would settle the Berlin question automatically without "the artificial construction of a 'free city' " out of Berlin as Khrushchev proposes.

Ulbricht Demand

There also is the letter sent to Adenauer by Walter Ulbricht, chairman of the East German Communist Party, giving Adenauer two weeks in which to reply.

Sources here said Ulbricht demanded that Adenauer abandon the idea of outfitting the West German army with rockets suitable for launching nuclear weapons or expect East Germany to acquire such weapons from the Soviet Union.

The German question seems certain to be the main point for discussion by the top-level delegates in their private talks outside the formal agriculture meeting.

It is the key point going before the May summit conference in Paris.

2 PACTS NEEDED, NIKITA TELLS BONN

Moscow (AP)—Soviet Premier Khrushchev Monday renewed his threat to sign a separate peace treaty with Communist East Germany.

Replying to a letter West German Chancellor Adenauer sent him in early January, Khrushchev said that since there is no single German government, a peace treaty must be signed with the two German states. Bonn considers East Germany a puppet regime and refuses to have anything to do with it except in matters of trade.

Khrushchev was quoted by Tass as saying that on the question of reunifying Germany, he is a private person. Adenauer, he said, is in the same position on the question of Berlin.

Reunification, he insisted, is not a matter for any third party, but only for the two German states.

Khrushchev repeated his proposal for turning Berlin into what he calls a free city and ending the military occupation there.

Referring to Adenauer's recent statements in Italy when he spoke of West Germany's mission in fighting communism, Khrushchev said such talk brings back memories of "the darkest sides of Germany's recent past."

Excessive Fees

Monrovia (AP) — Liberia's President William V. S. Tubman has ordered prosecution and disbarment proceedings against lawyers who demand excessive fees from clients. In an executive order, Tubman said many lawyers have been demanding exorbitant payments on the pretext they were necessary to ensure successful negotiations.

Muzzle-Fence

Dorchester, N.B. (AP) — It's going to cost $1,500 to cut off the wolf whistles prisoners at Westmorland County Jail have been directing at the girls. The Municipal Council, plagued with complaints about the whistling, voted to build a high, solid fence around the jail exercise yard.

Vinal Takes Over As McCrory Aid

Omaha (AP)—Richard P. Vinal, 41, former assistant district director of the Internal Revenue Service in Kansas City, took over the post of acting assistant Nebraska district director Monday.

He will remain in that capacity until James McCrory retires from the director's post April 1, when Vinal becomes district director.

"I guess you might say I've been 'in government' all my life," Vinal quipped.

A native of Washington where his father was employed in the Treasury Department Bureau of Engraving, Vinal was educated in Washington, receiving a bachelor of science and commerce degree in 1941 at Benjamin Franklin University.

Clearings Up In January

Lincoln bank clearings for January, 1960, showed a $4 million increase over clearings for January, 1959.

A total of $60,195,192.48 in checks were cleared for the 6 established Lincoln banks and the new Gateway Bank which opened its doors in mid-January.

Callas Left Behind

Milan, Italy (UPI)—Opera star Maria Callas missed a train to France after being annoyed by a photographer. A policeman to whom she complained refused to arrest the cameraman. The singer then made a complaint at the police station. The photographer was held for infringing upon Miss Callas' privacy but she missed her train.

Finch Threatened Wife, Court Told

Los Angeles (AP)—Mrs. Barbara Jean Finch was threatened by her estranged husband, wealthy Dr. R. Bernard Finch, the day before she was shot to death at her luxurious West Covina home, according to trial testimony Monday.

Mrs. Minette Haber of Palm Springs, Calif., said Mrs. Finch called her July 17th "and asked if she could come down for the weekend." Mrs. Finch, 36, was slain the next evening.

Dr. Finch and his red-haired mistress, Carole Tregoff, are on trial accused of her murder.

"Barbara said she was afraid," said Mrs. Haber—"that she wanted to get away from Bernie.

"She said Bernie had been served with contempt of court papers, and he had called her and said, 'take those papers back within 24 hours or else.' "

STOCKS RECOVER

New York (AP)—The stock market got up off the floor Monday, making a moderate recovery, after a bad series of beatings.

It was the first time in 4 weeks that "Blue Monday" was not observed with a sharp decline.

The rebound was on such small volume—2,820,000 shares compared with 3,060,000 in Friday's sharp retreat—that it had little air of conviction about it.

Steels and motors were active leaders in the advance. A number of assorted chemicals, electronics and rubbers rose as industrial stocks carried the ball. Rails and utilities did little or nothing on average.

The Dow Jones industrial average rose 3.58 to 626.20.

Of the 1,239 issues traded, however, gainers outnumbered losers by only 535 to 495. New lows for 1959-60 totaled 48. For the first time since Aug. 21, 1956, there were no new highs.

The AP average of 60 stocks rose 50 cents to $217.20 with the industrials up $1.30, the rails down 10 cents and the utilities unchanged.

Nine of the 15 most active stocks advanced, four declined and two were unchanged.

American Stock Exchange prices were from 1,090,000 Friday.

Corporate bonds rose in fairly active trading.

U.S. government bonds rallied in fairly brisk trading amid definite signs of easier money.

Volume amounted to $5,930,000 par value compared with $6,950,000 Friday.

Most Grains Near Seasonal Lows

Chicago (AP) — The decline in grain futures prices speeded up Monday and after the most general setback in several days numerous contracts were near their lows for the season.

These included nearly all the corn, rye and soybean deliveries. Soybeans, with losses running to about a cent, were only a little over 3 cents at best from the bottoms, corn and rye less than 2 cents away.

Rye and December wheat were under steady selling pressure all day without showing any signs of a rally. However, they finished slightly above their worst prices of the day. The only plus signs were in new crop wheat, all small.

Weaker markets for both soybean oil and soybean meal contributed to the bearish behavior of soybeans. Soybean oil, near its low levels of the season, sagged 1 to 2 cents and soybean meal as much as 65 cents.

At the finish, wheat was 1⅛ cents a bushel lower to ¼ higher, March $1.99⅝-½; corn ¼-⅝ lower, March $1.13¾; oats unchanged to ½ lower, March 75 cents; rye 1-1½ cents lower, March $1.27⅞; soybeans unchanged to 1⅛ lower, March $2.13⅞-¾.

Youth, 16, Said Hitlerite Chief

Kansas City, Mo. (UPI)—Police said a 16-year-old high school youth has been identified as the leader of the neo-Nazi group that was uncovered here over the weekend.

The teenager described as the "comander-in-chief" told police:

"We formed this group to talk and blow off steam about who we didn't like. During the meetings we would talk about Negroes and Jews and why we didn't like them," the boy said.

Police said the boy also talked about painting swastikas on Jewish buildings.

Authorities, however, have not linked the boys with a synagogue bombing that occurred last Thursday night.

Council Urged To Seek Funds Soon For Sewage Plant

Broken Bow (AP) — A representative of the state division of sanitation urged the City Council to be prompt in applying for federal aid for construction of the proposed Broken Bow sewage disposal plant.

James Caldwell told councilmen the sooner they get their request in the hopper the better chances will be of getting the money if and when it is available.

Caldwell said he is confident federal aid will be available although no such appropriations have been made for the 1961 fiscal year.

In other action the Broken Bow Council gave the board of public works the green light to advertise bids for a new generating unit for the city power plant.

Increased service demands have prompted plans for the disposal plant and generating unit.

Stops Constipation Due to "Aging Colon"

New laxative discovery re-creates 3 essentials for normal regularity.

As you grow older, the internal muscles of your colon wall also age, lose the strength that propels waste from the body. Stagnant bowel contents become so dry and shrunken that they fail to stimulate the urge to purge.

Relief, doctors say, lies in a new laxative principle. Old-style bulks and moisteners may create gas, take 3 or 4 days for relief. Old-style salts and drugs cramp and gripe the entire system. Of all laxatives, only new COLONAID gives you its special 3-way relief that works only on the lower colon (area of constipation).

(1) COLONAID moisturizes dry, hardened waste for easy passage without pain or strain. (2) COLONAID's unequalled rebulking action helps retone flabby colon muscles. (3) And COLONAID acts gently, on the nerve reflexes that stimulate the vital "mass movement" of your lower colon.

COLONAID relieves even chronic constipation overnight; is so gentle it was hospital proved safe even for expectant mothers. And COLONAID won't interfere with absorption of vitamins or other food nutrients. Get COLONAID today! Introductory size 43¢.

Single Chief Would Head Military Under New Bill

Washington (AP)—Sen. Stuart Symington (D-Mo) Monday introduced a bill providing for a powerful single chief of staff for the U.S. armed forces.

Symington, a former Air Force secretary, said his measure would set up a modern defense structure with clear lines of authority and responsibility.

An aide explained one basic purpose of the legislation was to minimize interservice squabbling.

Symington, a frequent critic of Eisenhower administration defense policies, emphasized his bill would not abolish the separate military services, including the Marines.

5 Cut To One

The single chief of staff for the Defense Department, under the bill, would have the power of decision now exercised by the Joint Chiefs of Staff representing each of the services.

The new chief would take the place of the present chairman, but with far greater powers.

At present the chairman has no vote, but seeks to win agreement among the chiefs through his influence.

Symington's proposal would make the service chiefs advisers to the single department chief, but they would have no vote.

Rep. Frank Kowalski (D-Conn) has introduced a measure in the House calling for complete unification of the Army, Navy and Air Force.

His bill would create a single defense force under a civilian secretary with command authority subject only to the President. The Joint Chiefs of Staff would be abolished and the post of deputy secretary, to be filled by a career military officer, would be created.

Kowalski said "I am against a single chief of staff. I think it would be a mistake."

Swain Of Heiress Says Her Granny Hiding His Spouse

New York (AP)—Andrei Porumbeanu charged Monday the wealthy Benedict family has hidden his wife to thwart his divorce efforts. He wants his freedom to marry 19-year-old heiress Gamble Benedict.

In a State Supreme Court petition, the 35-year-old Romanian-born Porumbeanu claimed the girl's grandmother has said he will never be divorced and therefore never in a position to marry Gamble. He added:

"I am of the opinion and thoroughly believe that my wife and daughter were lured, tricked, deceived or spirited away by Mrs. Katherine Geddes Benedict, grandmother of Gamble Benedict, and Douglas Benedict, her brother, and kept in hiding so that my wife would not be available to consent to a divorce which would then leave me free to marry Gamble Benedict."

Justice Irving L. Levey signed papers calling for the Benedict family to appear in court Thursday to answer Porumbeanu's complaint.

Pleads Innocent To Cruelty Count

Helen Barnes of 2120 O pleaded innocent Monday in County Court to a charge of being cruel to a child.

Judge Herbert A. Ronin set Mrs. Barnes' trial for Feb. 10 and set appearance bond at $100.

Mrs. Barnes, 20, is charged with cruelly punsihing her 26-month-old son, Robert R. Barnes Jr., on Jan. 31. Police said an examination of the child showed he apparently had been beaten with a belt.

John, Hubert Stand Even On Delegates

Sen. John Kennedy and Sen. Hubert Humphrey stand even in Nebraska on firmly committed candidates for delegate to the Democratic national convention next July.

Each now has one firm supporter among the candidates, according to new results of a continuing survey by The Star.

Other presidential hopefuls who have support from one delegate candidate include Sen. Stuart Symington and Sen. Estes Kefauver.

Four delegate candidates say they would be morally bound to support the winner of Nebraska's primary.

Only Kennedy has thus far entered the May 10 race.

Humphrey is the only possible challenger and his decision is expected within the next two weeks.

Committed delegate candidates include B. E. Naurenberg of Wahoo, Humphrey; Frank Sorrell of Syracuse, Kennedy; Gerald Schwartz of Omaha, Kefauver; Robert K. Garrity of Omaha, Symington.

Dr. Hinrichs Named

Wahoo—Dr. E. J. Hinrichs of Wahoo was elected president of the Saunders County Medical Society at the group's annual meeting.

Other officers elected were vice president, Dr. Robert Christensen of Yutan, and secretary-treasurer, Dr. John Hansen of Wahoo.
